

SALEM. — (AP) — Every Oregon county and city will be asked to establish a local civil defense organization, Governor Douglas McKay says.

The governor, after meeting with officials of the state civil defense agency, said details of the local defense organization would be announced Friday.

Louis E. Starr, Portland, state civil defense director, told the

Boy Saved From Death From Bologna Rind

DETROIT, July 13 — (AP) — Paul Laswell, 22, a garage mechanic, is a navy veteran and he has three children.

So he leaped the fence fast yesterday when he saw Joseph Shay, 2, a neighbor boy, in trouble.

Joseph was choking on something he's tried to swallow. A man from next door was holding him up by the heels in a vain effort to help. Laswell seized the boy, applied artificial respiration, kept him breathing until firemen arrived with oxygen and a respirator.

A bologna rind caused the trouble. Joe's all right now.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13 — (AP) — Police today said an army staff sergeant confessed he had struck the nude secretary who was found dying on a beach early Sunday.

Military police at camp Stoneman arrested the sergeant—Hugh E. Burns, 39, of Newton, Mass. Burns charged with murder—denied that he had struck Mrs. Myrna Stewart, 38, with anything other than his fists. She died of a brain hemorrhage without regaining consciousness.

"I was drunk and I didn't know what I was doing," police inspector Al Nelder quoted Burns. "We had an argument about something."

Medical examiners said there was no indication Mrs. Stewart had been raped. Burns denied any intimacies.
