PRINEVILLE, Ore., July 26 — (AP)—A 19-year-old youth escaped from the Crook County jail here Sunday night while another prisoner, who had escaped in exactly the same way 20 years ago, stood

ESTATE IN PROBATE

County Judge D. N. Busenbark has issued an order appointing Herbert W. Lombard of Cottage Grove as administrator of the Frederick Timm estate. Lombard succeeds Mrs. Mary Timms, widow of the deceased. Also appointed by Busenbark's order were appraisers V. R. Thomas, R. F. Randall and Clarence Leonard.

Sheriff Ralph Jordan said Morris Faulkner, held as a parole violator for Skamania county, Wash., authorities, made his getaway by chipping away the mortar, removing one of the 12x18 inch stone blocks in the bull pen wall and squeezing through. The jail is in the court house basement.

Acey Dunn, in the bull pen with Faulkner, escaped in the same way 20 years ago, Jordan said. His added poundage over the years wouldn't have permitted him to follow the youth even if he had wanted to, the sheriff added.

Western Oregon Needs Hundreds Of Bean Pickers

With but slight exceptions, farm labor demand and supply has been well balanced during the past week, but when snap bean picking gets well underway in the next week or two shortages are foreseen by several offices of the Oregon State Employment service. Eugene expects to need 200 or more additional pickers by mid-week, while Lebanon, Salem, Hillsboro and McMinnville anticipate no urgent calls until the first week of August if hot weather continues, the peak will be reached early next month with jobs for thousands of workers.

Roseburg began bean picking Friday, and is expected to get into full swing by the middle of next week. The local employment office expects to be able to place all applicants for harvest work during the coming weeks. About 300 bean pickers were sent out Friday. That many more will be needed next week.

The only current shortage of harvest help is reported from Gresham, just east of Portland, where 200 to 300 more persons can be used in the caneberry fields. Cabins and camp grounds are available in several areas for farm workers, but inquiry should be made through the nearest local office before moving, the employment service warns.

Commissions Of Army Reservists Have Been Frozen

WASHINGTON (AP)—The army has frozen reserve commissions expiring or about to expire. These are five-year commissions held by officers who are not now on active duty.

A large number of these five-year commissions were signed by officers who in September and October of 1945, in the months immediately following the end of World War II, left active duty and signed up for the reserves. Now these commissions are beginning to expire, just as the Korean crisis grows more and more acute.

Therefore, the army has issued a freeze order. The Air Force said it has been unable to freeze commissions of its reserve officers. The explanation, a spokesman said, is that the Air Force commissions were issued under a later law than that used by the army. Legislative action would be required to keep five-year commissions in the Air Force in effect, it was said.

There is no problem for the navy and marine corps. Their reserve commissions run "at the pleasure of the President." There is no expiration date. The Army and Air Force may order up some reservists who are not on a drill-pay basis, but the navy and marine corps contemplate no such move at the moment.

The Air Force says it may call on volunteer training units for specialists if such reservists are readily available and their skills are critical.

The navy expects to get all the men needed from its organized reserve and fleet reserve, made up of those put on inactive duty after 20 years' service. The marines, likewise, do not contemplate any

Paychecks Slated For Heavier Tap Snyder States

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder Tuesday said higher taxes probably will take a bigger bite out of wage earners' pay envelopes before the end of the year.

Snyder told a news conference he is "sure" President Truman will ask Congress this week to take individual and corporation taxes. The money would go to pay costs of defense to meet Communist aggression in Korea and elsewhere.

Congressional approval would mean bigger withholding taxes from employer paychecks. Snyder said Mr. Truman's request would be for an "interim" tax increase to go into effect as soon as possible.

The secretary said he is in accord with congressional leaders that no excess profits tax on corporations should be included in the interim bill because the measure should be passed quickly. He said excess profits tax proposals are so complicated they would mean extended and delaying debate.

Snyder also endorsed proposals to hold excise (sales) taxes at their present levels, close "loopholes" to garner more taxes, and speed up payment of corporation income taxes.

Servicemen In South Korea May Gain VA Benefits

American servicemen called into action in Southern Korea might be eligible for several benefits administered by the Veterans Administration, it has been announced. Those who suffer injury or disease in line of duty may be entitled to disability compensation pay at full wartime rates, despite the fact that this nation is not at war.

Dependents of those who might lose their lives in action may be entitled to death compensation benefits at wartime rates.

Full wartime rates for disability and death compensation, arising under conditions similar to the Korean situation, are authorized by Public Law 459, 77th Congress, passed 12 days after the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941.

Under that law, wartime rates are payable for disability or death resulting from injury or disease received in line of duty "(1) as a direct result of armed conflict, or (2) while engaged in extra hazardous service, including such service under conditions simulating war, or (3) while the United States is engaged in war."

The Korean action brings the first and second categories into play. The VA pointed out that those taking part in action in Korea would not be entitled to the G.I. Bill benefits as a result of that service. They would otherwise have to be eligible because of military service in World War II.

Evangelist Draws 17,000 Audience At Portland

PORTLAND, July 26 (AP)—A crowd set at 17,000 turned out here yesterday for the opening of Evangelist Billy Graham's revival in a new tabernacle built for the six-week program.

The covered area seating 12,000 was jammed and aides estimated the crowd seated and standing outside at 5,000.

Graham declared from the pulpit the assembly was the largest of any of his opening programs. He urged his afternoon listeners to attend night services of their own churches.

Percentage Of Child At Issue In Charge Here

Norman Yates, 24, is being held in the Douglas county jail, following his arraignment in justice court on a charge of being the father of an illegitimate child, reported Justice of Peace A. J. Geddes. Yates' bail has been set at $750.

Geddes also reported that Rex Charles Barnes, 35, of Roseburg has been ordered released on his own recognizance, following his arraignment on a charge of drawing a check with insufficient funds.

William S. Morman, 27, of Roseburg, charged with vagrancy, has been released upon payment of a $40 fine.

involuntary recall of volunteer reservists. Members of the reserved officers training corps (ROTC)—army navy and air force—are exempt from the draft during their junior and senior years in college. The exemption then ceases unless they accept their commissions and go on active duty for two years.

Magazine Scored For Attack On Dr. Raver

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—Rep. Jackson (D-Wash.) accused the Reader's Digest of "dishonest journalism" during a House speech yesterday. He made the accusation while attacking the publication for an article which referred to Dr. Paul J. Raver, head of the Bonneville Power administration, as "another socialist."

The reference appeared in an article entitled "What Does the CVA Mean to You?" appearing under the byline of Leslie A. Miller, former governor of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—Walter Du Bois Brookings, 77, manager of the natural resources department of the National Chamber of Commerce for 24 years, and for many years a lumber executive in California and Oregon, died Monday night. He was born in Keokuk, Ia.

Jackson said Miller had readily admitted in a telephone conversation with Raver and the Portland Oregonian that he wrote the article. He told both, Jackson said, that the words "personally attacking Dr. Raver" were inserted by the Reader's Digest.
