Catnip Brings Capers From Lions, Tigers, Leopards

CHICAGO — (AP) — A bushel of catnip was tossed into the lion house at the Brookfield zoo. Minutes later, the animal had the place jumping.

It was director Robert Bean's idea of throwing in the catnip—just to see if anything would happen.

The animals—lions, tigers, leopards—responded with an assortment of capers and catnip-ups that amazed even Bean. They behaved like over-grown kittens, and like cats, they appeared very fond of the catnip, the well known, strong-scented herb.

A 160-pound Indian leopard and regarded as dangerous, appeared to be trying to giggle. He sniffed the herb, rolled on it, and then staggered around drunkenly with a spray of catnip draped over one ear.

Three brother lions acted very allyed his tail; the third rolled on his back, gazed dreamily at the ceiling and gurgled.

Two surly bengal tigers attempted tricks after taking a few whiffs of the catnip. One tried to stand on his head, right in the catnip.

One leaning groggily in the corner, did setting up exercises. He took another sniff of the catnip and offered to shake Bean's hands. Bean declined.

Negro Granted Execution Stay

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Justice Burton of the supreme court has granted a stay of execution to Willie McGee, a Mississippi Negro under sentence to be electrocuted on a charge of raping a white woman.

Court attaches said this could be considered next October. The high court is now in summer recess.

McGee, 37, has been convicted three times on the rape charge.

HONG KONG, (AP) — Radio Peiping said Chinese Communist organizations have protested to President Truman against the death sentence of "an innocent Negro worker" in the U. S. charged with rape.

The dispatch, distributed by the official Red China News Agency, said eight "people's organizations in China" cabled Truman and the governor of Mississippi on July 22 demanding "immediate suspension" of the sentence.

The condemned Negro was identified by Peiping radio as Willie McGee, scheduled to be executed today.

China Real Loser In Korea, Journalists Say

PORTLAND — (AP) — The apparent loser in Korea is not South Korea nor yet the United States—but China.

So said Fred E. Hampson, former Pacific Northwest newspaperman, now Associated Press chief of bureau in Hong Kong. He is home on leave.

Hampson said in an interview here that the United States apparently is mounting its power and will win in Korea. That will leave China as the loser, he added.

Why? Because President Truman ordered the U. S. Navy to protect Formosa, and that effectively denies the Chinese Communists any chance of wiping out the resistance government headed by Chiang Kai-shek.

It could, in fact, lead to a breach between Red China and Moscow.

Coal-Steel Pool Planned By 6 European Countries

PARIS — (AP) — Six western European countries have nearly completed broad outlines for an international authority to control their pooled coal and steel production.

Delegates from the six governments—France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg—have been meeting here to work out details of the pool plan originally proposed by French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

An official spokesman said they have agreed—subject to approval by their governments—to set up:

1. A supranational authority to supervise the merged production.
2. A joint parliament, chosen by the national assemblies of member nations, to which the authority would be responsible.
3. A court of appeals to hear member protests of authority decisions.
4. A committee of ministers to maintain liaison with member governments.

Newsie Gives Readers Quick View of 'Sarge'

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — (AP) — Some subscribers of the New Haven Journal Courier had the answer today on why they received their morning paper folded backward.

There really was no mystery. The newsboy who delivered the paper was a brother of Sgt. William Kelly, a member of a national guard anti-aircraft battalion which has been called to active duty August 14.

Sgt. Kelly's picture appeared on the back page of the newspaper.
