TREACHEROUS KOREAN BATTLEGROUND—Somewhere in South Korea, American troops of the First Cavalry Division eat a hasty meal in the field before moving up to the front. Note the steep mountainside in background overlooking a narrow, dirt road. In mountainous terrain like this, guerrilla troops are able to dig in with light weapons and do heavy damage to columns of troops and armor moving down the roads. Real Machine Gun Fire To Train U. S. Soldiers

WASHINGTON, — (AP) — To toughen its soldiers for battlefield conditions, the army said it has intensified its training with realistic combat exercises—including use of live ammunition in machine guns.

In such training courses, used in World War II but banned since, troops crawl under barbed wire while machine gun fire streaks over them. The Army's announcement said its experience showed accidents were "not excessive" in training during the last war. It added that the number of lives saved as a result of realistic training far outweighed the hazards. Safety officers supervise such courses.

Vatican Warns Parents Against Communist Deceit

Vatican's sacred congregation of the holy office has warned Catholic parents against the enrollment of their children in Communist organizations.

The congregation—one of 11 in charge of Catholic church affairs—said that under Communist initiative, associations and institutions are being organized to educate children in "materialistic, anti-Christian and anti-religious principles."

"Whatever may be the names of these associations," the congregation warned, "they fall under the sanctions of the holy office's decree of July 1, 1949."

Under that decree parents or guardians who send their children to such organizations cannot receive the sacraments; those who teach children doctrines against incur excommunication; children who attend such associations cannot receive the sacraments.

Her parents found her hanging limply from the clothesline to which the leash was attached. Nearby the pup whimpered.

It was last September that the Cooney's ten-year-old son, Wayne, was knocked from his bicycle and killed by a car.

To keep daughter Ilene, three, out of the street, Cooney bought her a pup a week ago. He put it on a leash and tied it in the back yard.

While playing with the dog last Wednesday night, Ilene thought up a new game. She freed the pup and put the collar around her own neck—then stumbled and fell while romping.
