Iced Coffee Is Cooling Drink

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

There's no pleasanter ending to a warm-weather supper than a tall, tinkling glass filled to the brim with frothy iced coffee. Remember, however, that perfect iced coffee starts with good, hot coffee.

Try either one of these easy-to-follow methods:

Pre-Cooled Method
1. Make coffee regular strength—one standard coffee measure (or its equivalent, two level measuring tablespoons) of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of freshly drawn water.
2. Cool in a non-metallic container for not more than three hours, or, if the container is tightly covered, chill in refrigerator.

Quick Method
1. Make coffee double strength, by using half the amount of water to the usual amount of coffee.

2. Pour hot over ice cubes in tall glasses. The extra strong coffee allows for the dilution caused by the melting of the ice.
3. Serve with cream and simple syrup or sugar to taste.

You'll find that simple syrup makes the ideal sweetening for iced coffee. Just boil equal quantities of sugar and water for about Tau Eta Eta held initiation of four new members Wednesday, July 19 at the home of Mrs. Elmer Hampton, mother of Mrs. Earl Wiley Jr. President Georgia Daw presided during the ceremony. Polly Ann Hecathorn pinned corsages on Mrs. Marcy Johnson, Mrs. Jeanine Borthwick, Mrs.

Morene Hall and Mrs. Georgia Baker. Following initiation secret sister names were drawn and the charter presented to the sorority members. Refreshments, carrying out the sorority colors of green and white, were served by Mrs. Donna Meredith and Mrs. Wiley Jr.

10 minutes, stirring until the sugar has dissolved. The syrup can be made in small or large quantities; it keeps indefinitely when stored in the refrigerator.

Like coffee flavor in dessert? Then try this de luxe mousse.

Coffee Mousse
(8 servings)

One-half cup double-strength coffee, 1-3 cup sugar, 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten, 2 teaspoons vanilla, 2 cups heavy cream.
Heat sugar and coffee together, stirring until sugar dissolves. Boil to 238 degrees F. or until syrup spins a thread. Add syrup slowly to egg whites, beating constantly until mixture is cool; add vanilla; chill.

Whip cream until it just holds shape; fold into chilled egg white mixture. Pour into 2 empty No. 2 cans, filling almost full. Cover tops with several thicknesses of waxed paper or aluminum foil. Secure with elastic bands.

Pack molds in tub or bucket with equal parts of chopped ice and ice cream salt. Let stand 3 hours, pouring off water and adding more salt or ice as needed. Unpack carefully. Unmold, cut each mold in 4 slices.
