Version Issued
By Jehovahites

NEW YORK. — (A) — A new translation of the New Testament from the Greek has rolled off the presses of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract society.

The existence of the new version, differing in many respects from the King James version, was revealed by Nathan H. Knorr, president, at the international conference of the society, commonly known as Jehovah's Witnesses.

Anorr told the assembly, that other translations are "corrupted with religious traditions and worldly philosophy, and hence are not in harmony with the sacred truths which Jehovah God has restored to his devoted people."
