GARDEN RITES WED MISS IRMA HILL AND HOOD RIVER MAN

A garden ceremony Friday, July 21, wedded Miss Irma Ruth Hill, daughter of Mrs. Hester L. Hill, 4334 Hillinger road, Phoenix, and H. B. Woody, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Woody, Hood River, Ore. The rites were read at 8 o'clock in the evening in the garden of the Hill home by Dr. O. W. Ebricht of Zion Lutheran church.

A reception for 60 guests followed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hawk.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white eyelet embroidery and carried a white orchid encircled with white lace and rosebuds on streamers. She was given in marriage by Jack V. Hill, Portland, her brother.

Mrs. Warren J. Bottroff, her matron-of-honor, was gowned in powder blue and carried coral colored gladioli. Charles D. Holbrook was best man for Mr. Woody.

Bouquets of gladioli in pastel colors were used for wedding and reception decorations.

The newlyweds will live in Roseburg. The bride was graduated from Phoenix high school and Medford Business college and was bookkeeper for Hawk Plumbing company before her marriage. Mr. Woody, who attended school in Hood River, served as a major in the army air corps during World War II and is presently field representative for the state department of Veterans' affairs.—Medford Mail Tribune.

FAMILY GATHERING CELEBRATES BIRTHDAYS

A family gathering was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cooper Sunday with two birthdays being celebrated. Honored were Jesse Cooper and his granddaughter, Nancy Vanda.

A picnic dinner was held under the trees at the Cooper home.

TENNIS LADIES CLUB PLANS AUGUST TEA AT CLUBHOUSE, AUG. 9

The Tennis Ladies club met Wednesday, July 26, at the clubhouse. Potluck luncheon was enjoyed at noon after which time was spent in visiting. Draperies were hung and locks installed on the clubroom and recreation room windows. Plans were made to paint the woodwork and paper the walls of the clubroom.

Final arrangements were made for the tea to entertain four other clubs at the clubhouse, August from 2 to 4 o'clock. This is the regular club day but it was decided not to have potluck luncheon at this meeting. The Tennis Ladies members are to bring a cake, forks, spoons, and glasses. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Hazel Ison read a letter which was sent to the club by Mrs. Imogene Appleyard, wife of the former pastor of Tenmile, Dillard, and Camas Valley. They recently moved to Nehalem, Ore.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Grace Barnes, Mrs. Belle Clark, Mrs. Blanche Degner, Mrs. Hazel Ison, Mrs. Minnie Lockwood, Mrs. Minnie Melius, Mrs. Maureen Muetzel, Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Josie Smith, Mrs. Loue Wood, and Mrs. Julia Breitenbacher.

The next meeting will be held at the clubhouse on Wednesday, August 9.

Games were played by the children. Highlight of the occasion was a snowball fight. The snowballs were made from snow saved from last winter and kept in the locker for the occasion.

In the afternoon a birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream.

Those enjoying the day with Mr. Cooper and Nancy Vanda were: Mrs. Jesse Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Cooper and two children, Rusty and Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Don Vanda and daughter, Patty.

APRON AND TEA-TOWEL SALE IS DATED FOR AUG. 17-18-19

The Douglas County Home Extension committee is sponsoring an apron and tea-towel sale at the county fair in Roseburg on August 17, 18 and 19. The proceeds from this sale will go to the Azalea House.

The Azalea house is a co-operative house to be built in Corvallis for the housing of about 50 girls. At the State Council held at Corvallis last June, the state Azalea House chairman announced that $3,500 out of the $4,500 goal had been raised and this coming year would close the Azalea House project. This money is being raised by voluntary of the Home Extension women of the state.

Each person interested may, if she wishes donate an apron, a tea-towel or both for the booth at the county fair and may be handed to the unit chairman, the Azalea house chairman or mailed or left at the Extension office P. O. Box 512 Roseburg.

The committee will need volunteers to be hostesses at this booth. The chairman of each unit is asked to send the names of two volunteers from their unit to Mrs. Cecil Hartford at Oakland who in turn will notify them of the hours they will be needed.

PLANS CONTINUE FOR SUTHERLIN FLOWER EXHIBIT

"Waltz of the Flowers" is the theme of the Associated Business Women's fall flower show.

The display will be open to the public from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. All amateur flower growers in the community may make entries. The show is competitive. Both a sweepstakes and individual prizes will be awarded.

Exhibits will include annuals, preannuals, plants and all different types of flowers.

Arrangements will include three stems of one kind in either one quart or pint glass fruit jar; one specimen of a variety of five kinds to be arranged, artistic arrangements, table arrangements, hats made of flowers, flowering plants and leaf plants.

PINOCHLE CLUB ENJOYS MEETING THURSDAY

Summer flowers were used by Mrs. Dede Rose Thursday when she entertained her pinochle club at her home in Sutherland.

Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Rose were Mrs. Marie Bishop and daughter, Mrs. Theo Scott, Mrs. Isabel Caley, Mrs. Wanda Phillips and two daughters, Mrs. Edith Marshall, Mrs. Mattie Jackson of Roseburg, Mrs. Claude Harvey of Sutherland.

High score for pinochle play was held by Mrs. Bishop and low score by Mrs. Jackson.

The next meeting will be held in Roseburg at the home of Mrs. Marie Bishop.

So I says TO THE LADY... "MONTAG ELECTRIC RANGES ARE THE FINEST YOU CAN BUY" because.

MONTAG Space Saver

Here's a range with full-size cooking capacity and economy of space. The unusually large oven gives you maximum baking space and smokeless heating surface elements have five perfectly-controlled cooking speeds.

169.95 (Without lamp and timer)

KITCHEN HEATER

Heat your kitchen with this compact little burner. Use it also for burning trash or for heating water. Porcelain finish. Polished top available. Available with coil or water front for heating water.

12" wide x 23" deep. 36" high

COMBINATION

A favorite with Western women, this Montag Combination Range brings you modern electric cooking plus the old-fashioned warmth of wood and coal.

315.00

So I says ~

You can see for yourself that Montag ranges are good-looking. Their clean, functional lines make Montag ranges easy to keep sparkling clean. Montag ranges include all the automatic and time-saving features that will add beauty to your kitchen, without any unnecessary "gingerbread".

So I says ~

Quick-heating Montag elements are the easiest cleaned elements made. The element swivels up with a flick of the finger and the stainless steel drip tray is easily cleaned. Montag surface elements are one continuous flat coil. They heat the entire bottom of your pan thoroughly, economically.

So she says to me ~

"YOUNG MAN, WHERE'S YOUR ORDER BOOK? I'M BUYING A MONTAG RANGE!"
