Miss Evelyn Siems, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Siems of Roseburg, became the bride of Orville Walz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walz of Lodi, Calif., at an impressive ceremony June 21 at three o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene. Rev. Forrest Hill performed the ceremony before an archway of lavender and white canteberry bells and greenery, flanked by white candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white regal lilies and a white Bible.

Dorothy Siems, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a formal of aqua with matching headband. She carried a nosegay of pansies and roses. Bridesmaids were Doris Goodwin, Barbra Marsh, Leona Buker and Norma Stoller, who wore pink formal with matching headbands and carried nosegays of pansies and roses.

Judith Crow and Sandra Siems, sister of the bride, wore flower girls, and wore gowns of lavender organza with matching headbands. Shirley Goodwin and Clinton Siems, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Charles Bailey was best man and ushers were Russel Buker, David Weaver, Jerry Parsons and Phil Peterson.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Patricia Parsons sang "At Dawning," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother wore a blue and white suit with blue accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a green-colored dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception followed in the church parsonage. Blue and white flowers were used for decorations.

For traveling the bride chose a black and white suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of white lilies. Following a honeymoon to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Walz are now at home to their friends in Wilbur. The bridegroom is employed by the Wilbur Lumber company.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walz of Lodi, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Walz and a family and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jerome Parsons of Jerome, Idaho; Miss Patricia Parsons and Miss Ruth Siems of Portland, Norm Stoller and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Walz and daughter of Ontario, Ore.

Vacationers Find North Umpqua Lodge Pleasant

Numerous interesting visitors have been spending their vacation at the Golden North Umpqua lodge near Steamboat. Mr. and Mrs. John Norman Longe and daughters, Juliette and Anna Christine, and the children's nurse, Margaret Schere, of Venezuela, S. America, spent a week at the lodge at the opening of the season. The Longes are touring the Pacific Northwest and Canada. They will sail for England Sept. 1, to make their permanent home, following the last few years in Venezuela, where Mr. Longe was associated in the interest of the Shell Oil company.

Dr. Edward B. Towne and son, Ned, of San Francisco, spent a few days at the lodge early in July. Dr. and Mrs. Towne plan to return early in August for a longer vacation. The Townes have spent their vacation on the North Umpqua for the last 10 years. They will be joined by several friends who have been coming here every year to make up a party of San Francisco fishing enthusiasts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Fletcher of Carmel, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Work of Monterey, Calif., arrived July 9th for two weeks. The Fletchers extended their stay until August 1st and will return again later for fishing the last of September. Capt. and Mrs. L. M. Kirby, also of Carmel, and Pebble Beach, Calif., are spending the entire month at the lodge. The Kirby's made their first visit to Steamboat in May and spent two weeks at the lodge at that time and enjoyed the early trout fishing.

They were so impressed by the beauty of the stream and the fishing to be enjoyed, that they decided to return for a longer stay. They now plan to return in September for another visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Elliot Jr. and daughter Sally, of Pasadena, Calif., arrived July 1st to spend their vacation at the lodge. The Eliots have been vacationing on the North Umpqua for a number of years. Mr. Elliot is field representative for Remington Arms Co. and left for San Francisco to participate in the California state skeet shoot. A birthday party was given for Miss Sally on July 7th to celebrate her sixteenth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chapin of San Mateo, Calif., have been spending the last 10 days at the lodge. They had visited Jenny Lake and camp in Wyoming and Sun Valley lodge in Idaho before coming to the North Umpqua. Mr. Chapin succeeded in taking his first steelhead during their stay and is now a very enthusiastic steelhead fisherman for the future. The Chapins were at the lodge for their first visit a year and have made reservations for a three weeks stay in July 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Short and son of Roseburg spent their first weekend at the lodge over the Fourth of July holiday.

Col. Harvey B. Perrin of Pasadena and also of the New York club, arrived July 8th to spend the summer. He spent all of last season at the lodge and enjoyed some excellent fishing. He has been vacationing at the lodge since the camp originated and has made many friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jeffers and daughter, Gayle, of Beverly Hills, Calif., spent 10 days in July at the lodge. This was their first visit to Oregon and they were most enthusiastic about the beauty of this part of the country. They enjoyed fishing at Steamboat.

Col. James L. Hayden of Berkeley, Calif., arrived July 16 to spend several weeks at the lodge. Col.

Hayden has spent the last four seasons on the North Umpqua. He plans to return again in September with Mrs. Hayden for another two weeks stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decuis of Corvallis spent a week early in July at the lodge. Mr. Decuis is professor of chemistry at Oregon State college. He left here for Seattle to teach chemistry during the summer session at Washington university. Mr. and Mrs. Decuis plan to join Dr. Towne and his party at the lodge in August.

F. D. Van Schlegel of Pasadena arrived Sunday for a few days fishing, after making a business trip through the Pacific northwest. He is distributor for the Ferguson tractor plants and implements in the western states and Mexico. He flew his own plane into Roseburg and motored to the lodge from the local airport. He hopes to return with his wife later in the season. The Van Schlegels spent a couple of weeks at the lodge several years ago and are enthusiastic over the fishing possibilities at Steamboat. Edgar Ward of Hollywood arrived last week to spend a couple of weeks at the lodge. Mrs. Ward (nee Jane Wyatt) will join him if her parents picture is completed soon. Mr. Ward spent two weeks here last year.

A birthday party and outside picnic supper was given in honor of Harry Kellor, of Orick, Calif., (popular chef at the lodge) on July 12th. The guests had planned a very nice party and the evening was most enjoyable.

Many reservations have been made by former guests for the months of August and September and fishing conditions are reported as most favorable, which is always an important factor in a vacation.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ball, Glide, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharleen Marie, to Stanley J. Baldwin, also of Glide, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Baldwin, formerly of Glide and Canyonville and now residents of Exeter, Calif. Miss Ball will be a senior at Glide high school this fall. Mr. Baldwin was graduated from Canyonville high school in the class of 1949. No date has been set for the wedding.

CAROL SUE BARNES BECOMES BRIDE OF DONALD F. BARNES

Miss Carol Sue Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barnes of Dillard, and Donald F. Barnes, son of Mrs. Macon Jack of Roseburg, pledged their marriage vows at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 30, at the Dillard Methodist church. Rev. Frank B. Drew officiated at the nuptial single ring service with only relatives and close friends of the families attending. The young couple recited their vows before a large archway entwined with jasmine vine and white baby roses, flanked with jasmine vine and white baby roses, flanked with tall baskets of pastel colored gladioli and orchid hydrangia.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon net fashioned with skirt-waist top, with full circular skirt, ballerina length, trimmed with tiered rows of taffeta binding. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a band of white stephanotis. She carried a white Bible topped with white baby orchids held in place with satin streamers tied with white stephanotis. Mrs. Shirley Siegel, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a gown of imported yellow voile, ballerina length, and carried a spray bouquet of yellow and orchid gladioli tied with orchid satin streamers. Leslie Siegel was best man and Al Land was the usher.

Mrs. Stanford Buell played incidental music before the ceremony and followed by playing the traditional wedding marches.

The reception was held in the annex of the church. The bride's table was centered with a bowl of pink roses and white gladioli. The hand-decorated, three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride and served by Mrs. Berniece Johnson, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Rex Barnes poured at the punch bowl assisted by Mrs. Lester Baldwin. Mrs. Belle Clark had charge of the guest book.

Following the reception the newlyweds left for a ten-day trip into eastern Oregon. The bride chose for her going away costume a pink gaudine suit with white accessories. Both bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg high school. Mr. Barnes is employed with the California Oregon Power company. They will be at home in Roseburg, where they have an apartment on Winchester st.
