SHOES FROM OLD TUBES

GLENDALE, Calif. — (AP) — If fathers of children in the R. D. White elementary school find the inner tubes missing from their car tires, they can blame it on teacher Mrs. C. Juanita McGowan, handicraft superintendent, has the children making beach and play shoes out of inner tubes.

The shoes are sewed with yarn but fastened with metal clips at strategic points and decorated with wooden beads. Cost of the shoes is nominal, the teacher pointed out, since the material comes from discarded old tubes.

Soviet Ignorance Fans Flames For Third World War

(Editor's Note: Was Gallagher, veteran war correspondent and author, is the Associated Press chief of bureau for Germany with headquarters in Frankfurt.)

By WES GALLAGHER
For DeWitt MacKenzie

FRANKFURT — (AP) — The greatest contribution toward fanning the flames for a new World War is the ignorance of the Russian leaders of the ways of the West.

This is the belief of many diplomats who have worked in Moscow and those who have dealt with the Soviets here and in Berlin.

Because of the big Soviet spy rings which have been exposed, and the secret collecting of documents by Soviet diplomats all over the world, it has become popular to presume that Stalin and his political-brother are well informed on the Western mind.

But there is little indication of this in Soviet propaganda nor in the overt acts of Communist puppets who have lost ground steadily in Western Europe for the past five years.

Blind Frustration

Instead there appears to be an attitude of blind frustration, increasing suspicion and a tendency to the use of extremes and force to overcome any obstacle.

As Soviet power has spread, the ignorance has widened with it, engulfing countless more millions behind the Iron Curtain.

It has been the custom of dictators throughout the centuries to hear only what they want to hear. One need look only to Hitler to find the prime example of this.

Germany was a Western nation with close and long ties and channels of information to the Western mind. But in world political situations, Hitler and his Nazi clique behaved with amazing ignorance of the facts.

Captured documents show that through the '30s German embassies in Washington and London poured in a ceaseless torrent of information accurately forecasting rising Western resentment and warning the Nazi rulers that the West would fight.

Little of this information ever got to Hitler and his inner ring. Lower Nazi functionaries intercepted it and discounted it because it did not fit in with Hitler's beliefs nor Nazi plans.

'Yes Men'

What little did reach Hitler or the inner circle was not believed or was misrepresented by such "yes men" as Foreign Minister Ribbentrop.

Let's look at the Soviet Union. Russia's Iron Curtain and its police state isolate the Russian people and its hierarchy a thousand times more effectively than Hitler's dictatorship did.

Furthermore, Russia has been isolated mentally for more than 30 years.

Anyone with the slightest contact with the West has been purged, not only in Russia but in all Communist-controlled satellites.

The famed Soviet Economist Varga accurately predicted capitalism's strength in the postwar world. He was reprimanded.

Soviet Genetics Scientist Lysenko brought forth some theories on heredity which were the laughing stock of the recent Stockholm world scientific convention. Western scientists say Lysenko is living a hundred years behind the times. In Russia anyone who disagrees with his theories is purged.

Only one member of the present Russian politburo has ever had any extensive personal contacts with the West—that is Stalin's loyal disciple, former Foreign Minister Molotov.

Mental Jail

For 30 years the rest have hailed themselves within their Marxist walls, believing only what fits their theories, ruthlessly purging anyone who disagrees.

They have allowed out of their country only a small number of trusted ardent Communist be-

Red Press Hints At Air Blockade To Seize Berlin

BERLIN — (AP) — A new Communist anti-American press campaign raised fears today that the Russians may be getting ready to try again to force the allies from Berlin.

They failed with their blockade of the city last year.

The new propaganda drive centers around charges that an American plane, with the identification number "S-45," dropped firebombs over a town near the Elbe July 27.

(In Washington an official at the Pentagon said American planes do not bear "S-45" identifications and he had not heard of the alleged incident.)

The drive is fashioned on the same lines as the potato buy campaign three months ago in which American planes were accused of dropping Colorado beetles on East German potato fields.

Russia's official newspaper in Germany, the Taeglich Rundschau, published an interview with an East Berlin Communist worker today. It quoted him as saying "the soviet government should be asked to close the air space over the (East) German democratic republic to American planes. It can not be allowed that some day our whole crop goes up in flames."

Western observers regarded the Taegliche Rundschau's article as a calculated threat by the Russians.

U.S. air force headquarters at Wiesbaden declined to comment on the Soviet newspaper's hint of a future air blockade. But a spokesman said the charge about fire bombs was "ridiculous."

The whole town's talking about...

Husbands Choose War To Desert Wives, Morse Says

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Senator Morse (R-Ore) says that some husbands are finding active duty with the armed forces a convenient way of getting away from their wives.

He told the Senate Armed services committee that joining up may be a "good way to get rid of her."

"I think we ought to take them," Morse continued, and maybe "put them on the front line."

The senator's comment came while the committee was considering a bill to restore payment of monthly family allowances for wives, children and parents of men drafted or called to active duty from civilian jobs.

Morse said deserted wives and children should have the right to obtain family benefits even if the husband and father did not ask for them.

Defense officers assured him that is the way the proposed law would work, as it did during the last war.

Pliny, the Roman scholar, noted in A. D. 50 that early residents of the Netherlands protected their home from the sea with crude mounds.

Interior Decorating can be FUN!

LOOK WHAT HAPPENS . . .

. . . when the nostalgic charm of grandma's old-fashioned kitchen is combined with the efficiency of today's magic appliances! In her wildest imaginings grandma would never have dreamed it possible to have ranges like we have today, with timesaving automatic controls that take all the uncertainty out of cooking; refrigerators and storage freezers that are like having supermarkets right in our own kitchens. Yet her kitchen was livable in spite of the fact that it answered many needs . . . kitchen, dining room, laundry.

To conserve space in our small homes of today, it is often expedient to use the kitchens as a combination kitchen-dining room. The sketch above shows an effective decorative scheme for such a room. Small-patterned provincial-type wallpaper blends nicely with knotty pine woodwork and cabinets. Scalloped cornice of knotty pine provides attractive frame for window, permits full advantage of light. Deep blue linoleum on floor is repeated on splashboard. This background was planned especially to play up the warmth, friendliness and charm of the magic furniture.

Drop-leaf table and benches provide adequate space for family dining. Hutch . . . a reproduction of grandma's favorite . . . has linen and silver storage facilities. Come in and see our furniture. We've garnered a selection that will meet both your taste and your budget requirements.
