

MAC Takes Swim Lead

Seattle Club 'Spectacular' With Only Four Entrants

BY GEORGE CASTILLO
The Multnomah Athletic club piled up a strong lead to dominate the first night of the second annual Southern Oregon Invitational Swimming meet at the municipal pool last evening. They grabbed 72 points in the senior men's division and 55 in the junior girls' bracket.

Most spectacular showing, however, was made by the Washington Athletic club of Seattle, which with a three man team, picked up 61 points to come in second in the senior men division. To add to their honors, Dick Elliott was high point man with 18 and was followed closely by his teammate Paul Sellin with 16. Elliott was first in every event he entered and swam on WAC's winning relay team. He took the 220-yard freestyle, 100-yard freestyle and 50-yard individual medley events.

Individual winner in the girls' division was Ann Hackworth of Multnomah Athletic club with 29 points. She capped the 100-yard and 50-yard breaststroke events and came in second in the 100-yard and 50-yard breaststroke. Sally Becker, unattached placed second with 16 points.

Depth spelled the success of the Multnomah club last night as they placed someone in the top three in every event. They took first in seven of the 18 events, 7 seconds, and 7 thirds.

Coach Ray Daughters' Washington Athletic club had nearly a perfect record. Men were entered in nine events and picked up seven firsts, two seconds and a third.

The only Roseburg entrant was Dick Kruyaman, who placed fourth in both the 100-yard and 220-yard breaststroke.

Divers Perform
Olympic diver, Al Patnik, which the program with some excellent fancy diving midway in the events. An added attraction was the appearance of former Ohio State diving champ, Bill Burgess. When this exhibition was going on, diving clown Jack Henderson was dragged from the crowd as a heckler and forced to vie with Patnik. The result was a hilarious show. All three men will return tomorrow night.

Tomorrow night the senior women's and junior boys events will be run off. It will be a chance to see the national breaststroke champion Judy Cornell in action fresh from her 100-meter triumph at High Point, N. C.

Studs, Chiefs Vie Sunday

The long awaited battle of the Titans is slated to take place on Finlay field Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. when the front-running Cheney Studs from Central Point come to grips with second place Umpqua Chiefs.

The powerful Studs will be out to make sure of the first place position by downing their only rivals while the Chiefs will be fighting desperately to pull themselves back into striking position. This will be the first of two make-up games with the Central Pointers.

The Central Point team is presently sporting a 9-0 record as against 9-2 for the Chiefs. The Studs have eight former professionals on the team along with some outstanding college players. Frankie Roelandt, ex-Oregon State player will probably be catching. Paul Gerhman, former American league player and 20 game winner in the Pacific Coast league will be pitching. This is an indication of their talent.

Pitching for the Chiefs will be "iron man" Bus Sporer with the possibility that newly acquired Don Reed may give him some assistance.

Armory Slates Battle Royal

Six of the most formidable wrestlers in the business will engage in a "battle royal" at the Roseburg armory arena tonight, starting at 8:45. With a $200 purse at stake, action between the six matmen is certain to be sustained from the starting gong until only two of the men remain undefeated. All six, along with referee Elton Owen, enter the ring simultaneously. Owen has little chance to do anything other than "direct traffic" with the villains certain to get in their inevitable illegal tactics with Owen looking the other way.

Contestants in the free-for-all will be: Mel Peters, the bearded blond from Hollywood; Jack O'Reilly, former coast champ from Australia; Frankie Stojak, another ex-coast champ and WSC athlete; Lee Grable, popular grappler from Los Angeles; Ace Abbott, villainous Texan who will be one of the leading threats; George Drake, the "Catalina Kid" who could score an upset.

Senior Men: 150-yard medley relay—MAC; WAC; Aero; A team, 1:24.7. 200-yard freestyle relay—WAC; Aero; A, MAC; A, 1:44.4. 220-yard freestyle—Dick Elliott, WAC; Gordon Edwards, MAC; Jerry Young, WAC; 2:19.6. 220-yard breaststroke—George McFaul Jr., MAC; Gilbert Westwell, unattached; Bob Hays, unattached; 2:59.5. 100-yard backstroke—Paul Sellin, WAC; John Welch, MAC; Trover Campbell, MAC; 1:04.7. 100-yard freestyle—Dick Elliott, WAC; Paul Sellin, WAC; Gordon Edwards, MAC; 1:33.3. 100-yard breaststroke—George McFaul Jr., MAC; Gilbert Westwell, unattached; Bob Hays, unattached; 1:08.2. 440-yard freestyle—Jerry Young, WAC; Gilbert Westwell, Gordon Edwards, MAC; 5:11. 220

ARROW HEAD—Russell Raymond Reynolds is bound for Copenhagen, where he will shoot for the world archery championship. The Cleveland sharpshooter holds eight of a possible 12 United States records.

Looking Ahead with DON FORBES

Women as the buyers of the nation have a highly developed sense of values. Years of bargain hunting have conditioned them so they can see through gaudy wrappings to the essential value of the product. That is why much of the increased income being earned by women in business nowadays is set aside to purchase annuities, endowments, and other forms of life insurance protection. With business women generally retiring at an earlier age than men, their need for such protection is very great and has resulted in the number of women owning life insurance policies today being twice the pre-war figure. The average policy, too, is for a considerably larger amount. Why not talk your policy over with me today?

Chiefs Absorb Whitewash

By CHUCK PLUMMER
Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs were handed their first shutout of the season last night as they bowed before a hard-hitting Coquille team, 11-0.

Roseburg pitchers Jerry Cade and Wally Richardson were nicked for 12 hits while Coquille's Don White limited the Chiefs to two bingles, both by catcher Norval Ritchey.

Ritchey hit a double his first time up in the second inning. In the first of the fifth, he was injured chasing a pop foul into the dugout and was switched to left field. When he came to bat in the last of the fifth, he rapped out a triple for his second hit of the evening.

Coquille squeezed in one run in the second inning, and three more in the third. After adding another in the sixth, they made a big inning out of the seventh, scoring four runs on three hits and two Roseburg errors. Two more runs came in the eighth on two hits and two more Roseburg errors.

Larry Hens, Phil Steinberg, Tommy Hawkins, and White were the big hitting guns for Coquille, each getting two bingles. Hens hit Coquille only extra base rap, with a double in the seventh.

Jaycees Earn Playoff Spot

The Jaycees won a berth in the finals of the YMCA Twilight league play-offs Thursday night by whipping the Christian Church men at the grove, 10-3.

The Jaycees exploded with eight runs in the first inning to completely unnerve the Christian Church men.

The Christian Church men got single runs in the second, third and sixth, but were never a threat.

The Jaycees can now sit back and take it easy while the other three teams battle for the other place. On Tuesday, the First Methodist will meet the Vets' employees to decide which team will take on champion Copco on Friday night. The winner of the Friday game will grapple with the Jaycees in a two-out-of-three game series.

In order that the finalists can conveniently field full teams, the dates for the finals are subject to change, announced Marlin Yoder, director of the league.

On Aug. 21, a potluck dinner will take place at the grove for all league participants and their families. Players are to contact their managers to see what they should bring. Presentation of the championship cup will be made at this event to Copco.

Redding Wins Eighth Straight

(By The Associated Press)
Thanks to a big seventh inning, the Redding Browns captured their eighth straight win in the Far West league and hiked their first place lead to three-and-a-half games.

Along with Redding's 8 to 2 triumph over Pittsburg, the fans saw the Brown's second baseman, Ken McGehee married to his sweetheart, Marilyn Mikkelsen of Modesto, right at home plate.

Everything was going swell for Klamath Falls on their home diamond as the third inning started, with the Gems leading Reno 3-0. But Reno's Bill Seward shut the Gems out from then on, and his mates started peppering singles.

Honolulu Swimmer Beats Furuhashi Of Japan

OSAKA, Aug. 12 (AP)—Ford Konno of Honolulu beat Japan's great Kironoshin Furuhashi in the 880-yard free style today for one of the swimming's big upsets.

Konno, Japanese-American high school star from Hawaii, edged out Furuhashi by a stroke. Konno's time was 9:40.2, cutting 14.4 seconds off the recognized world record.

Darkness Winner In Softball Play

The Schermer's Bottlers, first half champions, of the City Softball league and champion Copco of the Twilight league began a battle of the giants last night at the Grove but were unable to continue because of darkness.

Nothing was decided since the teams were deadlocked, 1-1. A return game has not been announced.

Injuries Riddle Tigers With Key Men Absent

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12 (AP)—As pacemakers of the American league, the Detroit Tigers have to go on with it the hard way.

Today they fretted over the loss of shortstop Johnny Ligon, reported out of action for perhaps a week with a spike wound, and pitcher Virgil Trucks' condition was evidently no better.

In fact, manager Red Rolfe indicated he was already ready to give up on Trucks.

The fast-ball righthander, out since May 19, worked out yesterday and said afterwards his sore arm felt worse.

Coach Daughters Likes City Pool

Visiting Olympic coach Ray Daughters called the Roseburg Municipal pool one of the finest he has ever seen, and he is in a position to have seen plenty.

He has been in the coaching game almost 40 years and has coached such all time swimming greats as Frank Medina and Helene Madison who were smashing records in the early thirties.

He was a coach of the American swimming contingent to the Amsterdam, Berlin, and London Olympics and just last month staged the national outdoor swimming championships at Seattle.

Daughters noted that this was the kind of pool that makes swimmers want to break records. Not only is it a beautiful pool, he said, but the water is "live." A swimmer can feel it when he enters the water, he continued. Either it is "live" or it is dead and unnerve.

His knowledge and ability was well displayed in the Southern Oregon Invitational meet last night as his three-man team crowded a vastly more numerous Multnomah group, losing to them by only 11 points. In only three events did they finish out of first place. They won seven races, took two seconds, and one third.

CONGRATULATIONS—Ann Hackworth, top winner in junior women's swimming events at the city pool last night, grins in appreciation as her coach Phil Hansen of the Multnomah Athletic club, congratulates her performance in giving the MAC the lead in the two-day event. Lower photo shows a bit of the horseplay swimmers were subject to as diving clown Jack Henderson (suspended from board) screams in mock terror at the distance from board to water. Olympic diver Al Patnik gives the clown an assist. (Paul Jenkins photos)

Tam O'Shanter Golf Play Sees Ransom Lead Pros

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP)—Henry Ransom of Chicago today held the halfway lead in the professional division of the Tam O'Shanter "world" golf championship with a total of 139.

Ransom, 39-year-old tournament darkhorse, fired a three-under-par 69 yesterday to lead the pro run for the first prize of $11,000. He is 2 strokes up on Chandler Harper, new PGA champion from Portsmouth, Va., in the 72-hole meet.

Upset Viewed; All-Stars Top Eagles, 17-7

CHICAGO, (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles, ranked as one of the greatest pro football machines ever assembled, were picking up their wreckage today.

The all-stars ripped through the National Football league champions 17-7 before nearly 90,000 enthralled customers in Soldier Field last night.

The surprise triumph—the Eagles were favored by 14 points—was balm for the 38-0 trouncing Coacn Greasy Neale's same team registered over the college graduates in 1949. It was men against boys then. This time it was men against men.

All but Emil Sitko of Notre Dame, out with a muscle injury, saw action in the 48-player all-star squad, astutely readied by head coach Eddie Anderson, who returns to Holy Cross from Iowa this season. None was injured in the game.

Sharpening the attack were 20-year-old Eddie Le Barron, the 165-pound quarterback from College of Pacific, and North Carolina's Charley "Choo Choo" Justice.

Le Barron's masterful generalship, his flip-out passes and his nimble runs through and over guys twice his size stamped him as about the toughest little 135-pounder since Davey O'Brien. He left today for Camp Pendleton, Calif., and active service with the Marines.

Justice was every inch an All-American—a ball of fire lashing 133 yards in nine carries, including runs of 47, 31, 28 and 12 yards. It was the all-star's sixth victory against nine losses and two ties in the series. Praise for the winners came from all sides.

"I really believe they were the greatest team ever assembled," said coach Anderson.

"It was the greatest All-Star squad I ever saw," added Bert Bell, National Football league commissioner.

University Of Oregon Grid Men Hit By Draft

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—The fighting in Korea is shooting holes in the University of Oregon football squad.

The backfield men will report for active duty before the fall season begins and two other players have been called in the draft for their physical examinations.

Headed soon for service in the air force are sophomore Tom Lyon, ticketed for the varsity right tackle spot, and Gene Gill, reserve left half. Another right half, Tom Elliott, has been summoned for duty in the marines.

Up for their physicals are Darwin Farnsworth, right halfback transfer from Nevada, and Ray Lung, veteran defensive guard.

Pro-Amateur Tournament Set Up To Aug. 29-30

CLARKSTON, Wash. (AP)—The 36-hole Pacific Northwest Pro-Amateur Golf tournament will be held here Aug. 29-30, instead of Sept. 11-12 as scheduled.

Officials said yesterday the later dates conflicted with the Hudson cup matches in Portland. Pros will play for $1,000 in cash and amateur for $500 prizes worth $250.

Professional Ed Oliver and amateur Erv Parent, both of Seattle won the tourney last year.

Bickford Hurls No-No Win As Braves Blank Dodgers

Associated Press Sportswriter
Vern Bickford's no-hitter, first in the majors since 1948, may be the spark to ignite another pennant fire in Boston.

Five games behind the league-leading Phillies, the persistent Braves have a chance to make the grade. After they finish with the dazed Brooklyn Dodgers tomorrow, the Bostonians move into Philadelphia for two vital games. "Bick" will be ready for the Phil Dodgers tonight.

Best Game
This, of course, was his best major league game. Walking only four, the 29-year-old righthander allowed but one man to reach second base.

Carrying a 7-0 lead into the ninth last night, Bickford wavered momentarily. He walked pinch hitter Jim Russell. After retiring Pee Wee Reese, he walked Gene Hermanski. Russell thus became the first Dodger to reach second base. After Duke Snider curled a long foul drive into the leftfield corner, he rapped a double play ball to shortstop Buddy Kerr to end the game.

The Braves clipped a full game off the Phils' lead when New York's Sal Maglie knocked off the pace setters, 3-1. Al Dark's two-run homer and an inning of wildness by soldier Curt Simmons gave the Giants their 18th win in their last 21 games.

Ewell Blackwell, flashing his 1947 form, held the Cardinals to four hits and left them in fourth place, 6½ games behind the Phils. The lean Cincinnati righthander was helped to a 5 to 2 victory by Ted Kluszewski, who slugged two doubles and a single. Chicago

Portland Leading In Junior Legion State Tourney

ALBANY, Ore. (AP)—Portland was the only unbeaten team left today in the State American Legion Junior Baseball tournament here.

Portland defeated Oregon City, 11-5, last night behind the seventh pitching of southpaw Don Holt. Besides, Holt got three singles in four trips to the plate and batted in a run.

He was helped by Denny Elsasner who got three doubles, John Keller with a double and a single and Dick Bartell with a triple and a single.

Ken Hay, Oregon City's starting pitcher, was called from the mound after walking two in the third. Jack Montgomery replaced him.

Medford stayed in the double-elimination tournament by putting The Dalles out of the running, 12-6, in an afternoon game.

The winners led all the way and added the clincher with five runs in the eighth. Terry Maddox paced the Medford attack with four hits in five times up.

Oregon City plays The Dalles tonight. The winner meets Portland Sunday afternoon.

Seattle Star Joins Circle; Gets 20 Wins

(By The Associated Press)
Jim Wilson of Seattle is the first pitcher in the Pacific Coast circuit to register his 20th victory.

Big Jim, who won 15 in a row until Hollywood stopped him, crowded into the select and otherwise unoccupied niche last night by disposing of the power-laden Oakland A's at Emeryville, 8 to 1. Wilson took all the zing out of the Oakland bats, and set Charley Drensen's marauders down with four scattered hits. Seattle batted Hank Behrman out in the first inning.

It was Seattle's first win in four games of the series.

San Diego stayed in second place by outlasting Los Angeles in a slugfest, 9 to 8; Hollywood clipped Portland 4 to 2, and San Francisco nosed out Sacramento, 1 to 0.

Stars Surge
Hollywood, held hitless by Portland's Cal McIrvin for four innings, broke loose for six hits in the fifth and scored four runs. McIrvin left the premises with three runs in the bases loaded and two out. The Stars got another run off reliever Jack Creel. Aside from the fifth, Hollywood put only three men aboard, and all were erased by double plays.

San Diego, seemingly beaten as it came to bat in the seventh, scored five runs and chased Los Angeles hurler Booker McDaniels. The border club banged two more runs in off Bob Muncie in the eighth. It was the fourth straight win for the Padres over the hapless Angels.

San Francisco's Cliff Melton gave Sacramento only five hits, but Orval Grove almost matched him pitch for pitch. Joe Grace got a lucky hit for the Seals in the sixth, the ball hitting a pebble and bounding high over second. Ray Orteig singled to left and shortstop Jack Conaway slugged a double down the left field foul line to count Grace.

Sacramento filled the bases in the ninth but Billy Raimondi popped up and pinch hitter Ted Del Guercio lined to short.

Bob Buchanan Is New Leffthanded Golf Champ

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Bob Buchanan of Indianapolis is the new champion of the nation's leffthanded golfers.

The 125-pound Purdue university senior defeated Jack Walters of Tacoma, Wash., 2 and 1, yesterday in the finals of the 11th annual National Leffthanded Golfers tournament.

It was Buchanan's second championship in four years.
