

American Travel To Europe Little Affected By War

The Korean war has had no appreciable effect on American travel to Europe so far, the Oregon State Motor association says. Officials of the American Automobile association, who recently returned from an extensive tour through Europe, report that close to 400,000 Americans are vacationing in Europe this year, about 85 percent of which is linked to the automobile.

"Some cancellations are reported by airlines and steamship companies," the association said, "but most of these cancellations are quickly picked up by other travelers on the waiting list. A mid-July check of overseas airlines shows flights to Europe at nearly maximum capacity, flights from Europe at 60 percent capacity. There is no rush to get home."

"The United States government is taking no steps to discourage Americans from traveling abroad. The state department has advised the AAA that the Korean war is not considered reason enough to curtail the tourist movement to Europe or to cause concern for Americans who are now on the continent."

The association reported that motor travel in Oregon is showing a substantial increase over that of last year, probably in the neighborhood of 20 percent. Resort areas are getting a good play and the

TWO TRAINMEN KILLED

FIELD, B. C. — (CP) — Two Canadian Pacific railway employees, Conductor W. G. Walton, 51, and trainman Frank A. Kinny, 30, were killed near here Monday when a pusher locomotive rammed into the rear of a caboose in which they were riding.

association advises advance reservations for national park areas and popular resort areas, if they are to be visited on weekends or holidays.

Author Dorothy Parker, Ex-Mate Remarrying

WEST LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Author Dorothy Parker and her ex-husband, screen writer Alan Campbell, are remarrying Thursday.

Their second wedding will be held in their new Bel Air home. "I called her up in New York and asked her and she said yes," Campbell explained yesterday. "You never know why you do those things."

The couple were divorced in 1947 after 14 years of marriage. Campbell blamed "the war and separations" for the break-up.

Farmer Divorced From A Mother And Daughter

STOCKTON, MO. — (AP) — Farmer, married to a mother and her daughter, at the same time, has lost both his wives. The daughter, 20-year-old Marge Ann Sexton, yesterday obtained an annulment of her marriage to Leo E. Sexton. Last Friday her mother, Mrs. Helena Sexton, got a divorce from Sexton.

Neither woman sought to press bigamy charges. "All they wanted was to get loose from him," said Prosecuting Attorney Joe W. Collins. Collins said Sexton and Mrs. Helena Sexton were about 60 years old.

The elder Mrs. Sexton and the farmer married in 1938. She said Sexton seduced Marge Ann when she was 17 and married her on July 18, 1948 without getting a divorce. Marge Ann was Mrs. Sexton's daughter by a previous marriage.

Both women said they bore children by Sexton. The older woman has an 11-year-old daughter and the younger has a two-year-old son.
