REORGANIZATION OF THE NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS association took place at a picnic dinner Sunday at Umpqua park with more than 200 in attendance. Several other organizations and groups also enjoyed picnic affairs at the park Sunday. The park has proved a popular picnicking area during the summer months. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

City Swimming Fixed By Jaycees

Plans to sponsor the all-city swimming meet Friday at 7 p.m. at the municipal pool were made by the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night.

The meet will be open to boys and girls of ages 7 to 19, and will feature all regular racing swim styles, together with diving contests. Ribbons will be awarded in each event. No admission will be charged.

Entry blanks are available at the pool and must be filled out by Thursday noon.

Glenn Scott, general chairman of the Southern Oregon Invitational Swimming meet, held last weekend, reported that the affair was a success, and that all committees functioned in good order. The Jaycees broke about even financially, the treasurer's report showed. All-in-all, said Scott, the affair was very worthwhile, and plans are definitely to go ahead with another meet next year.

A social evening for Jaycee members, their wives and guests was announced for 9 p.m. Sept. 7 at the Moose hall. Bob McCard will be in charge of arranging a floor show and Irv Brunn will be in charge of the kitchen.

Several projects were discussed, including a soap box derby next year. McCard and Duane Baker were named on a committee to investigate plans further. A safety campaign was also discussed, with Wayne Crooch delegated to make a further study.

Australia Names Team For Davis Cup Attempt

BROOKLINE, Mass. — (AP) — To the surprise of none of the tennis-wise, Harry Hopman, non-playing captain of the Australian Davis Cup team, named a quartet to will make a fourth attempt to lift that international tennis trophy from its U. S. defenders next week at Forest Hills, N. Y.

Hopman named Jack Bromwich, Frank Sedgman, Ken McGregor and George Worthington as his nation's forces for the challenge round. For some time it had taken for granted that they would be in the Australian lineup.

Novelty Race City Swimming Meet Feature

A novelty race will be one of the features of the first annual Roseburg junior and senior all-city swimming meet, to be held at the local pool Friday, Aug. 18, starting at 7 p.m. Race rules require participants be boys between the ages of 14 and 19 and be fully clothed, including shirt, hat, pants, and shoes. The race will be 40 yards freestyle. The winner must finish the race with all his clothes on, including the hat. There will be a whole pie for the winner.

Irv Pugh, Jaycee director of the Roseburg meet, cautioned all boys and girls to be sure and get an entry blank for each event they desire to enter and be sure all the blanks are returned to the swimming pool by Thursday noon, Aug. 17. Pugh also reminded all those who desire to enter that there is no entry fee. Everything is free.

The age range for this local meet is from seven to 19. There will be freestyle, breaststroke, backstroke and medley races.

High School Teams To Experiment Again

PORTLAND — (AP) — Oregon high school football teams will experiment again next fall — this time with free substituting.

Tom Pigott, secretary of the Oregon School Activities association, said that the National Federation for High School Sports had designated the state to try out unlimited substitution, similar to that in college football.

Diving contests will be held in the junior division, ages 12 to 16, and senior division, ages 16-19. The swan, jack-knife, and back dives will be compulsory in both divisions and the cut-away will be compulsory in the senior division. There will be two optional dives in the junior division and three optional dives in the senior division.
