Negro Organizations Protest Ban On Movie

CHICAGO — (AP) — The police ban on the showing of a movie, "No Way Out," in Chicago has been protested by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and six other organizations.

The ban against showing the Twentieth Century-Fox film here was recommended by Capt. Harry Fulmer, in charge of the police censor division.

Fulmer said he told Police Commissioner John Pendergast the film was "something that might cause more racial unrest than we have now." He said his office "held up the permit" on the film, which portrays alleged prejudices met by a Negro doctor in practicing his profession.

"We already have a (racial) problem without adding to it," Fulmer said.

The protests were made to Mayor Martin H. Kennedy.
