Bean, Hop Pickers Urgent Need in Oregon Districts

SALEM — (AP) — An urgent appeal for bean and hop pickers was issued Saturday by the state employment office.

It said the labor force was short 8,500 for needs in the next two weeks.

The appeal asked local-area residents to turn out in a concerted effort to save the crops.

The following shortages were reported:

- Salem—6,000 for late hops Sept. 1, 1,000 for beans.
- Albany—250 for beans.
- Corvallis—150 for hops and beans.
- Eugene—300 for beans.
- Hillsboro—250 for beans and hops.
- Lebanon—250 for beans.
- McMinnville—200 for beans, 400 for hops.

Auto Crash Kills Groom Of 2 Weeks; Bride Hurt

ALBANY — (AP) — Troy Edward Egan, 30, Eugene, was killed and his bride of two weeks injured yesterday when Egan's car went out of control north of Shedd on highway 99 east.

Mrs. Egan, 18, was in the Albany hospital.

Choate Webster Defends All-Around Cowboy Title

PENDLETON — (AP) — Round-up history had a bright new chapter today after Choate Webster of Nowata, Okla., successfully defended his all-around cowboy championship title.

The young cowpoke was the first man to post a second straight victory for the $5,000 Sam Jackson trophy.

Webster, 25, who now has a cattle ranch near Lenapah, Okla., where he was born, said yesterday he would try to be back again next year.

He captured the calf roping title in yesterday's finals to add to earlier gains in the four days of competition. His time for roping and tying three calves was 55.1 seconds.

Dub Phillips, Chandler, Ariz., won the bulldogging title with a time of 1:02.9 minutes for three steers. The steer roping crown went to Cotton Lee, Ft. Sumner, N. M., with a three-steer time of 1:18.8 minutes. The bareback championship was shared by Casey Tibbs, Ft. Pierce, S. D., and Jim Hailer, Chandler, Ariz. Bill Linderman, Red Lodge, Mont., was the victor in the saddle bronc finals.

PARTIAL CALAMITY

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — (AP) — Three men escaped with minor injuries Sunday as a big trailer-truck loaded with dynamite collided with another truck and then caught fire.

All three leaped clear of the wreckage seconds before the gasoline tank of the larger truck—carrying 600 cases of dynamite—exploded.
