

Forgery Charge Hearing Waived; $750 Bail Fixed

Steve Erickson, 21, of Roseburg waived preliminary hearing in justice court this morning on a charge of forgery and is being held in the county jail on $750 bail, according to A. J. Geddes, justice of the peace.

City police arrested Erickson last night on a complaint signed by John Daniel Smith, according to Chief Calvin Baird.

The complaint alleges that Erickson signed and cashed a payroll check belonging to Smith.

Erickson also was fined $20 by Municipal Judge Ira B. Riddle on a charge of being drunk in a public place.

Big Scale Disasters Not Likely In Douglas

responsibility for disaster victims would rest with civil defense authorities," General Beecher's plan states.

He said the Red Cross would assist the civil defense, mainly by providing housing facilities for refugees. At present a survey is being conducted to determine availability of housing in schools, churches, grange and lodge halls and similar buildings with heat, cooking and sanitary facilities. Bunks, beds and bedding available will also be reported.

Four Areas Designated

To facilitate administration, the county would be divided into four areas.

Western — West of the Coast range, including Scottsburg with headquarters at Reedsport.

Northern — East of Coast range and north of Yoncalla; headquarters at Drain.

Southern — East of Coast range and south of and including Myrtle Creek.

Central — The remainder of the county; headquarters in Roseburg.

Under the plan, area chairmen will obtain up-to-date information on availability of sources of supply and of transportation. Reports will be made to Mrs. R. E. Herman, executive secretary of the Douglas county chapter, in the Roseburg armory.

Names of Douglas County Disaster committee members and of area chairmen will be announced later, General Beecher said.

Ex-Nazi Youth Happy Now As U.S. Airman

NEWARK, N. J. — (AP) — A youth who soldiered for Hitler in World War II has realized his "wildest hopes" — to be an American citizen and to serve Uncle Sam's air force.

Karlhenz Waidman, 23, was rushed from a German officer candidate school to the front lines on the Rhine when he was just 18 years old. But during seven weeks as a prisoner of war in the United States he became impressed with the American way of life.

Back in Germany, he wrote to an uncle, Joseph Mohler of Belleville, N. J., and asked to live with him.

His final citizenship papers were granted July 7. And Wednesday he was sworn into the air force "with the opportunity to become a pilot — my boyhood dream."

Fine, Jail Term Follow Failure To Make Report

P. W. Williams of the Williams Construction Co. of Tigard was fined $100 and given a sentence of 90 days in jail, when found guilty of failure to make the quarterly report on employment and pay rolls to the State Unemployment Compensation commission. The jail term was suspended contingent upon his making future reports when due.

Justice of Peace E. J. Finley of Tigard handed down the ruling after a hearing on a complaint filed by C. Russell Morgan of Hillsboro, district attorney of Washington county. The charge was brought only after Williams failed to respond to three subpoenas and after several calls by the commission's auditors.

Similar charges are being held in abeyance against several other employers over the state from whom the commission's representatives have had difficulty in securing reports, it was said at the hearing. Under the unemployment law as enacted in 1935, reports must be made within 30 days after the end of the quarter by employer of four or more persons in most industry and trade lines.

Bomb Dispersal Plan Launched By President

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Key agencies are to be scattered well outside Washington so a single atomic bomb won't kyo the nation's government.

President Truman started a dispersal plan going yesterday in asking Congress for $130,800,000 to build four office centers "within commuting distance of Washington," probably about 25 miles away.

Most important government departments and bureaus now are clustered in an area of two square miles along the Potomac river's banks.

This is only the first portion of what Mr. Truman called a "long-range plan to insure the continuity of essential functions of government in event of emergency."

Eventually it is planned to have perhaps a dozen or more such federal agency centers ringing the capital from a safe distance.
