

Lumber Imports To U.S. Increase

SEATTLE — (P) — A sharp increase in the country's semi-manufactured lumber imports, compared with a year ago and a decade ago, is shown in the monthly Commerce department report on foreign trade.

Trade sources said the bulk of the imports are British Columbia shipments to the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. Shipments from the Pacific Northwest states in inter-coastal trade also have increased in the same period, the sources said, but at a lesser rate.

The imports of sawed boards, planks, deals, etc. (in millions of board feet) were 356 in June of 1950 compared with 275 in May and 120 in June of 1949. The monthly average for 1949 was 130 compared to 60 in 1939.

The increase in the value of the imports was even sharper because of price increases. It was $26,000,000 in June compared with $19,400,000 in May and $8,600,000 in June, 1949.

Wood pulp imports were listed at 224,500 tons in June compared with 204,000 in May and 130,000 in June last year. The 1949 monthly average was 147,000 and the 1939 average, 169,000.

Senator-Elect, Twice Barred, Passes Away

DWIGHT, Ill. — (P) — Col. Frank L. Smith, who was twice barred from serving in the United States Senate, died Wednesday. He was 82.

A Republican party leader in Illinois for many years, Smith served one term in Congress, from 1919 to 1921.

It was heavy financial contributions to his 1926 campaign by utilities firms while he was chairman of the Illinois Commerce commission from 1918 to 1920 which led to refusal of the Senate to seat him.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE — on the air? That is the question. Whether KRNR will carry MDL's "Reporter's Roundup" tonight (8:30-9:00 p.m.) depends on how soon we get a negative or affirmative nod from down Los Angeles way. Lawrence Spivak and Martha Rountree, owners and producers of the former MDL feature, "Meet the Press" have sued the Mutual Broadcasting system for $1,250,000 claiming Mutual replaced their program with "Reporter's Roundup" which closely resembles "Meet the Press" in its basic format. In a letter received by KRNR from "Meet the Press" producers Rountree and Spivak, a warning was issued to individual stations against carrying the program "Reporter's Roundup," although it is available for broadcast via the Mutual network lines. KRNR Manager Leroy Hiatt is now in Los Angeles, where he will meet with Mutual-Don Lee executives and determine today or tomorrow whether KRNR should carry "Roundup." Senator Robert A. Taft was to be this week's interview guest on the program. If not carried tonight in its "live" broadcast (8:30-9:00 p.m.), "Reporter's Roundup" will be replaced by "The Mysterious Traveler." If word is received later than 8:30 tonight that we may carry the program, it will be released on tape-recording Saturday, (7:30-8:00 p.m.), one time only.

Very well pleased with the Fulton Lewis Jr. response... Forty cards and letters received within a week's time in answer to two requests made in this column. No inducements whatever except loyalty to Fulton Lewis Jr. and we got the above number of replies. A great many interpreted the appeal for letters to indicate that Lewis might be removed from our program schedule... which is certainly not the case. His news-commentary will continue to be aired 4:00 p.m. and 9:15 p.m. daily, and the listenership for both broadcasts seems to be evenly distributed, half and half, as evidenced through our mail-poll. Our sincerest thanks to those who have responded and who are continuing to respond to the appeal.

TONIGHT: "Melody Time" (7:30-8:00 p.m.). "The Clyde Beatty Show" (8:00-8:30 p.m.). "Reporter's Roundup" (8:30-9:00 p.m.). Soprano Licia Albanese and tenor James Melton co-star tonight in presenting great moments from Puccini's tragic opera "Madame Butterfly" on "Music You Want" (10:15-10:45 p.m.).

TO FILL C. OF C. JOB
LA GRANDE, Ore. — (P) — C. L. McCorkle, manager of the Weiser, Ida., chamber of commerce, will take a similar post here Sept. 1.

He succeeds Gordon Mueller, who resigned Aug. 1.

McCorkle plans to keep his position as secretary of the Highway 30 association.

Episcopal Church To Hear Gordon

David W. Gordon, a candidate for Holy Orders from the Diocese of Oregon, will be guest preacher at St. George's Episcopal church, at the 11 a.m. service, Sept. 3.

Mr. Gordon has been assisting Father Tyson in the direction of the annual Vacation Church school during the past week.

He is a senior student at the Church Divinity school of the Pacific in Berkeley, Calif. Before entering the seminary, he was graduated from Oregon State college in 1948. He was also a member of the National Youth commission of the Episcopal church.

He is currently the acting minister of St. Andrew's Parish, Oakland, Calif. He will return to the Diocese of Oregon upon completion of his seminary career next June. This is his second appearance in Roseburg, having spent two months here last summer.
