Vivien Leigh Now Back In Hollywood To Play 'Streetcar Named Desire'

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — They had a press conference for Vivien Leigh and you'd be surprised at the things she discussed.

Things like avocados, square dancing and nonshifting cars. A number of the press were ushered into an extra fancy dining room near the set of "A Streetcar Named Desire." Miss Leigh's first American film in 10 years. She soon appeared, dressed in a faded dressing gown and a blonde wig for her role. She proved to be more down to earth than the classy surroundings.

"We went to a party for chilling," she reported, speaking of herself and her husband, Laurence Olivier, also here for film role. "It was the first we'd ever done and we found it great fun. We went to aparty for children at Edna Best's, intending to stay a half hour. We stayed all evening and had a wonderful time. Square dancing seems to be the best possible way to get one's exercises."

Someone asked if she is driving a car in California.

"Oh, no," she replied. "The traffic is too terrible. And I wouldn't want to try one of those cars that shifts itself, like the ones you have here. I like to shift gears and put in the clutch, not have the car drive itself. That frightens me."

What food is she enjoying most that she didn't get in England? There was no hesitation: "Avocados!" Miss Leigh dropped one remark that set the reporters scribbling. Asked about Olivier's plans to film more Shakespeare, she replied: "I don't think he'd reveal. If he did, Orson Welles might start filming the same thing immediately."

Other items of information from Miss Leigh: Like her husband, she thinks California weather is worse than it used to be. She also noticed that shooting of movies is much faster than 10 years ago. She doesn't care for the mustache of "a strange orange color" that Olivier raised for his film role.

He practices his lines at home, but she doesn't "because I know mine." (She played in "Streetcar" in England.) She has no picture plans for the future.

I asked Miss Leigh what happened to the oscar she won for playing Scarlett O'Hara in "Gone With the Wind." "I left it here with my secretary when I returned to England 10 years ago," she replied. "I left most of my things here, since there was no telling what would happen in England at that time. However, Oscar is going home with me this time."

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — A cat owned by Anthony Desantis of Oakland, N. J., was ranked by Cats magazine as the top ranking feline in the United States. Desantis' cat is a blue Persian male, grand champion Lavender Liberty Beau. The leading female cat was named grand champion Vee Roi's Lantara Gene, a Siamese blue point owned by Mrs. R. H. Hecht of Normandy, Mo. More than 2,500 cats were rated.

National Prayer Period Asked For Korean Dead

CLEVELAND — (AP) — A national moment of prayer for United Nations soldiers killed in Korea has been proposed to President Truman by the national commander of Amvets.

Harold Russell, Amvets leader, sent a telegram to the President asking him to call upon the Amvets to ask people to join the Amvets at 11 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 10, "for one minute of silent prayer honoring the memory of the brave men who have sacrificed their lives in Korea under the banner of the United Nations in the crusade for freedom."

Former Roseburg Officer Moves Up

Lt.-Col. Raymond Bell, formerly of Roseburg, has been appointed the new deputy for administration and services at the Lackland Air Force base human resources research center.

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Bell and their daughter now reside in San Antonio, Tex., following his completion of a ten months course at the Naval War college, Rhode Island.

Col. Bell was commissioned a second lieutenant in the infantry in 1931, following graduation from the University of Oregon. He transferred to the air force in 1940 and served 45 months in Panama and Europe during World War II.

A brother, Lt.-Col. Maynard Bell, is stationed in the Pentagon building, Washington, D. C. Both men were born and raised in Roseburg and are the sons of W. D. Bell and nephews of Miss Minnie Bell, both of this city.

Enrollment Of Medical Schools Shows Increase

CHICAGO — (AP) — Approved medical schools in the United States had a record high enrollment the last school year. The American Medical Association's council on medical education and hospitals, said that 25,103 attended the 72 medical and seven basic science schools in the 1949-50 academic year. This is an increase of 1,433 students or six percent, over the preceding year. The freshman class of 7,042 was the largest on record, 3.3 percent higher than the preceding year. Dr. Donald G. Anderson, council secretary, said the freshman class this year will be "even larger."

The report was published in the AMA Journal.

Korea Invasion Was 'Surprise' Missiogy Says

The Communist invasion of South Korea came as a "complete surprise" in the opinion of Robert Findlay, who was there as a missionary shortly before the outbreak of hostilities last June.

Findlay, a 28-year-old former inter-collegiate boxing champion and now a foreign missionary, was in Korea several months this year, leaving just two weeks before the war started.

He spoke at the North Roseburg church Sunday as part of the church's program for its first anniversary.

"When I was in Southern Korea," he said, "the army was at a peak of efficiency. The Korean officers were confident of their numerical and tactical superiority over the North. The unexpected collapse of the Southern army was caused by the Reds' use of tanks against which they had no adequate defense."

Findlay believes that the invasion of Southern Korea "was dictated by Soviet Russia as part of an over-all plan to absorb all of East Asia. Their strategy is to go as far as possible by infiltration and then if that does not succeed to resort to the use of force." Although highly successful at first, the Red infiltration of Southern Korea had completely collapsed during the past year, Findlay said. This collapse was due in a large measure to a great upsurge of interest in Christianity.

Findlay reports that the Red infiltration suffered its first set-back in 1948-49 when a flood of a million and a half refugees fled south across the 38th parallel to escape the horrors of oppression in the North. As a result, communism became very unpopular in Southern Korea.

"In the face of this sweeping advance of Christianity in Korea," concludes missionary Findlay, "the forces of atheism and materialism lost out completely. I am convinced that it was this great religious awakening that brought on the Communist invasion. The Reds realized that they had lost out completely and could never hope to win Southern Korea by infiltration and internal revolution. Consequently their only alternative was to invade."

New Judge Assigned To 9-Year-Old's Case

SALEM — (AP) — Circuit Judge Donald E. Long, in charge of the domestic relations court of Multnomah county, has been assigned by Chief Justice Lusk to handle the proceedings of 9-year-old Gary Ziegler in Clackamas county. The youth shot and killed his mother several days ago because he didn't want to live with her. Judge Long replaces circuit Judge Ralph Holman of Oregon City, who disqualified himself because he had been attorney for the boy's mother in her successful divorce action.
