Oregon's First Lady Honored at Lovely Tea

Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, was the inspiration for a large tea Friday afternoon given by a group of Roseburg friends at the Roseburg Country club. Women of Douglas county were invited to call between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock.

Chick baskets and bouquets of gladioli formed the decorations. Mrs. L. W. Metzger acted as general chairman of the successful affair with Mrs. Valle Broadway in charge of decorations, assisted by Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. H. C. Berg, Mrs. Roy Bellows and Mrs. George Wharton.

Miss Virginia Young was in charge of the music and refreshments with Mrs. James Richmond and Mrs. Robert Rhodes assisting. Mrs. Robert G. Davis and Mrs. O. J. Fett presided at the beautifully appointed table; Mrs. Ray B. Compton had charge of the guest book and Mrs. H. T. Hansen and Mrs. George Luoma were in charge of transportation.

Background music was played during the tea hours by Mrs. W. Sherman Plimpton and Mrs. Gordon Stewart.

Mrs. McKay, dressed in a floor-length afternoon gown of light print with an orchid corsage, was most charming and gracious. Guests found her easy and delightful to visit with and instead of just calling to pay their "respects" as most such affairs turn out to be, the guests came early in the afternoon and stayed to visit and enjoy the musical program.

Picture in upper left shows Mrs. Guy Gordon and Mrs. Douglas McKay. Center left, Mrs. James Richmond, Miss Virginia Young and Mrs. R. B. Rhodes. Lower left, the reception line, with Mrs. Harold Bellows being received. Upper right, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. George Luoma, Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer, Mrs. J. A. Harding and Mrs. M. C. Bowker. Center right, Mrs. Ray B. Compton and Mrs. Robert G. Davis. Lower right, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook and seated at the tea table, Mrs. O. J. Fett.

A few friends met at a noon luncheon Friday in the private dining room of the Hotel Umpqua in honor of Mrs. McKay. Decorations for the luncheon were arranged by Mrs. H. C. Berg.

HUTCHINSONS ARE HONORED AT FAMILY REUNION AND PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Hutchinson were honored last Sunday, when the Copeland family held a reunion and picnic at the Hutchinson Wayside, at Kellogg.

This land, which is now a State Park, was donated to the state a few years ago by Mr. Hutchinson, when he was county commissioner, and has since been cleaned up and improved and is fast becoming a favorite spot for camping and picnics. It is also a historic spot, for there on the river is the old mill race, made in the early fifties.

Enjoying the day at the Copeland reunion, besides Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson were: Mrs. Lillie Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Haines, Bobby, Gerald, Betty and Janice; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love and son of Myrtle Creek; Mrs. Reuben Ferber, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McFerrin, Mr. and Mrs. Dale McFerrin, Rodney and Larry, Doyle Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Copeland and Corlie, Jo Ann Hass, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, Arnold and Mary Alice; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Copeland Jr. and Bruce; Mrs. Milo Bullock, Barbara, Gary and Erlene; Mr. and Mrs. Bill McFerrin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Copeland, Bart, Faye, Kent and Caroler; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Copeland; and from Pico, Calif., Mark Wegner and Vane Woodberry.
