

WILL BE BRIDE OCT. 20—Mrs. T. J. Slattery of Roseburg announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marian, to George R. McBride, son of George W. McBride, of Eugene. The wedding has been planned for Oct. 20 at the First Presbyterian church in Roseburg. Both the bride-elect and bridegroom-elect were graduated from University of Oregon.

STRADER-McARTHUR WEDDING—Pale blue delphinium, pastel gladioli and candlelight set the scene for a lovely double ring ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. McArthur, of Glide, when their daughter, Judith Diane, became the bride of George Clinton Strader Sept. 8. A gown of ice-blue satin trimmed in white lace and a blue shoulder-length veil fastened with pale yellow gladioli flowerettes, were the bride's choice for her wedding. She carried a pale yellow gladiolus on a white Bible, and was given in marriage by her father. Miss Dorothy Rathkey, of Tennille, dressed in pink taffeta and carrying a corsage of orchid gladioli, was maid of honor. The best man for the bridegroom was Leon Arney of Roseburg. A reception for friends of both families followed and wedding cake and punch were served. Mrs. Strader's going-away costume was a green suit, on which she wore a yellow corsage. After a trip to the coast, the couple will be at home at Canyonville. Mr. Strader is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Strader, long time residents of the Glide community. (Picture by Clark's studio.)

BRIDE OF EDWARD L. KELLEY—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Horton announce the marriage of their daughter, Marilyn, to Edward L. Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pritzkan, Sept. 2, at Chico, Calif. The wedding date was also the bride's 19th birthday.

Rev. Mr. Pickleman read the single ring ceremony at the Lutheran church at 8 o'clock in the evening. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelley, of Chico, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg senior high school and has been employed in the office of Tipton and Permin Insurance co. for the past year. The bridegroom, was graduated from Salem high school and is employed by the Mitchell Logging co. Following a short honeymoon, the couple are now at home at the Oakhill apartments.

MARRIES RICHARD CRANSTON ROADMAN—St. Mary's Cathedral was the scene of the lovely wedding Aug. 12 of Miss Phyllis Lee Averitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Averitt of Beavertown, and Richard Cranston Roadman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Roadman of Roseburg. The Rev. Lowell Blackburn officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported white marquisette with a portrait neckline edged in dainty lace flowers. Her illusion veil, edged in French lace, fell from a coronet of orange blossoms.

Mrs. George T. Snow was Matron of honor for her sister, and wore a gown of fuchsia taffeta. William A. Waldroff was best man, and ushers were Craig Averitt, brother of the bride, and William Moore.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cronemiller, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Mr. Roadman is an engineering student at Multnomah college.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Portland.
