

ALLIED FOR FREEDOM—Old Glory and a United Nations flag are raised over the City Hall at Kaseong, Korea, just below the 38th parallel. The town was taken by 1st Cavalry Division troops. VFW Leader Rules On Flag Display Issue

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Commander Charles C. Ralls of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has told VFW posts it's all right for them to take part in observance of United Nations day Oct. 24.

"While nothing has changed my personal, fundamental objection to detracting from Old Glory by displaying the U. N. flag either above it, around it or by the side of it, the VFW is a strong believer in the United Nations and wants its anniversary celebration to be a success," Ralls said.

He had complained over the weekend that the department of Agriculture was fostering a scheme to supplant the American flag with that of the U. N. by helping to distribute patterns for the U. N. banner. The department retorted: "grossly false."

Ralls said he thinks display of the U. N. flag should be limited to Oct. 24 and that the American flag should be displayed with it then in the position of honor.

WE'RE PROUD OF OUR YOUTH!

Our young people have had an active part in the purchase of the world's largest missionary airliner, a gospel radio station reaching half the world's population, an ocean-going missionary vessel used in the South Pacific, and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of other transportation, radio, and printing equipment.
