RECORD TRANSFUSIONS—Sgt. Richard M. Kimbrough, 20, of Montebello Park, Los Angeles, is living on other people's blood. Now a patient at the Oak Knoll naval hospital at Oakland, Calif., Kimbrough has been given 75 pints of blood since he was wounded in Korea. His family in Los Angeles recruited blood donors from every block in their neighborhood and turned in 400 pints to be donated to Dick's buddies. (AP Wirephoto.)

TO RING AGAIN—Korea's historic, five-century-old Liberty Bell, traditionally rung on occasions of national jubilation, lies amid the rubble of the Seoul building that housed it. Legend says the bell's peal includes the moan of a child—the child of a beggar woman thrown into the cauldron, along with the treasures of all Koreans present, when the bell was cast in 1488. The bell last tolled on Aug. 15, 1945, when the Japanese surrendered.

Orgy Of Assault May Result In Murder Charge

DETROIT — (P) — Young Ennis Gillum may face a murder charge as the aftermath of his "crazy drunk" spree of slugging and assault.

Stricken with remorse, the 26-year-old tobacco salesman admitted five sters. But officers planned to seek a murder warrant. The other four victims are recovering.

Mrs. Irene Gillum sat quietly beside her husband in his jail cell and held his hand yesterday as he tried to throw off a hangover fog and remember the assaults that took him into several homes in the same general area.
