TENTH BIRTHDAY PARTY ENJOYED BY YONCALLA WSCS GROUP

Members of the WSCS of the Yoncalla Methodist church were hosts at a birthday party, celebrating the tenth birthday of the organizing of the WSCS society. Guests of the day were members of the Elkton WSCS.

Mrs. Luther Daugherty and Mrs. Cabanes were hostesses at a one o'clock potluck dinner. The tables were decorated with grape leaves and clusters of grapes while the mantle was banked with colorful autumn leaves. Large bouquets of tiny chrysanthemums were also used in the decorations.

The Elkton WSCS furnished the birthday cake. Ten yellow candles, which represented different phases of the society's work, were lit by members of the Yoncalla Society.

Following the dinner, a short business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Sparks. The chairman of the rummage sale reported that $80 was cleared at the sale held last Saturday. Mrs. Dare Kingery and Mrs. Byars gave a fine lesson on "The Near East" during the missionary hour. Three new members were welcomed into the society.

Those present from Elkton were Mrs. Newland, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Heiden, Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Moore. From Yoncalla, Mrs. Pontus, Mrs. Jack Boucock, Mrs. Elton Grass, Mrs. Fred Lee, Mrs. Nimocks, Mrs. Fred Paulsrud, Mrs. George Edes, Miss Elaine Johnson, Mrs. Jean Cowan, Mrs. Elmer Currier, Mrs. J. N. Payroll Bandits Flee From Blind Victims

NEW YORK — (AP) — Two Brooklyn payroll bandits grabbed their loot Friday but fled in confusion from a strange, stumbling chase of blind men.

Their victims were the basketweavers and carpet-makers at the industrial home for the blind.

A sharp scream from a woman office worker roused the plant after the gunmen entered and seized the checks for nearly all the $3,500 weekly payroll.

Police said the pair, both Negroes, fled to a waiting sedan, dropping and scattering some of the pay envelopes as they ran.

After they streamed a few of the workers who could see a little. After these came the totally blind—stumbling, groping, but determined. They pursued more than half a block until they heard the sedan roar away.

New checks were being prepared for them today.

REPORTS FREAK EGG

A. V. Taylor of Roseburg broke an egg on the edge of his frying pan Monday and was surprised.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Moehlmann were overnight guests Sunday of Rev. A. Grace Hartley and father, Dr. Calame. The visitors were enroute home through southern California. Mr. Moehlmann sang a solo for the evening church service with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Moehlmann. He also gave a short talk featuring the work of the Gideons.

Ott Jones and Ralph Arnesmeyer of Roseburg, representing the Gideons, conducted the morning service at the local church Sunday.

Guests the past weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gateman included the latter's sister, Alena May Anderson, and friends, Evelyn Foster and Eihelmae Forbes of Portland.

Following choir rehearsal Thursday evening, the group went down to the social rooms of the church where birthday cake and punch were served by Rev. Mr. Hartley and Mrs. James Williams. The surprise party honored three of the members whose birthdays occurred Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Lois Swift and the Misses

Horse's Meal Of Pearls Worth $4,500, Jury Says

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — A jury decided the pearls consumed by a horse constituted a $4,500 meal. The pearls involved in the court decision Friday belonged to Mrs. Elizabeth Gearhard of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Gearhard said the horse, owned by her sister, ate 69 of the largest pearls in her necklace. She retrieved 262 others when she struggled with the animal and the necklace broke.

Mrs. Gearhard sued the Boston (Mass.) insurance company for $5,000 when she said the firm failed to honor her claim for $4,400. The jury pondered the problem and decided (1) The necklace was worth $5,000 (2) the pearls rescued by Mrs. Gearhard were worth $500 and (3) therefore, the steed's meal was valued at $4,500.

Hotace Michener Schell, attorney for the insurance firm, said he planned to file a motion to set aside the jury's verdict.

JoAnn and Jean Welty (twin sisters) were the honored members. Other members present included: Jackie Welty, Lola Lusk, Mary Jean Buell, Elouise Ollivant, Lorraine Jacoby, Dixie Nay, Lorna Vance, Donna Schulte, Betty Jo Wylie, Darlene Ollivant, Iris Davis, Winifred Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Helman, Mrs. Mathis, Tommy Vance, Victor Monger, Kenneth Swift, New Nay, Melvin Reagles, Melvin Forbes and Raymond Wood.

Yakima Food, Clothing Sent To Needy Navajos

SUNNYSIDE, Wash. — (AP) — A ton of food and clothing moved from the lower Yakima valley last week in what is believed to be the Northwest's first concerted effort in behalf of drought-stricken Navajo Indians of Arizona.

The relief move was sparked by two valley women, Mrs. E. T. Upton of Sunnyside and Mrs. Clarence Boyd of Grandview.

Mrs. Upton said she hoped the shipments would continue on at least a monthly basis for the remainder of the winter.

HOT TECHNIQUE

SEATTLE — (AP) — Pepper in the peppers was the tactic of a pair of robbers here.

They grabbed Frank Hedlund, 58, as he was carrying $450 of Stalaker was sentenced in Multnomah county. One seized his arms. The other threw pepper in his eyes. Then they snatched his sack of cash and ran.

with Mr. and Mrs. J. Kearby Masters, Mrs. Carlin (Gussie Bell), a cousin of Mrs. Masters, came west by plane from Ft. Worth, Texas, a month ago. She was met in Portland by Mr. Carlin and they were married in that city. After an extended honeymoon in Nevada and Idaho, the couple returned to Coos Bay to make their home. Mrs. Carlin exclaimed over the "damp reception" Oregon has given her, but says that its beauty is "beyond compare."
