COUNTRY CLUB CHAMPS—Pictured at the far left is Mrs. Walter Brydges, winner of the 1950 women's fall championship at the Roseburg Country club. Mrs. M. E. Ulschaffer, center, was the runner-up in the club competition. Mrs. Rolstyn Bridges, right, was the medalist. Not pictured are Mrs. H. C. Stearns, first flight class A winner, and Mrs. James Hughes, first flight runner up. The women finished the tournament play Tuesday. (Picture by Paul Jenkins.)

HELD BY POLICE—Ennis Gillum (above), 26, a salesman, sits with his wife, Irene, in Detroit, Mich., police headquarters, after the bludgeoning of four women and two children. According to Homicide Detective Sgt. Edward Jacques, the only reason Gillum could give for going berserk was, "being crazy drunk." One victim, Mrs. Dorothy Julian, 47, died of wounds. SNAPSHOT CONTEST WINNER—This picture of Joseph Wasilauskas of Waterbury, Conn., blowing smoke rings for his daughter Shirley, won for him the grand prize in the National Newspaper Snapshot contest. The grand prize was $1,000 and in addition Wasilauskas won another $500 for winning the Class B (young people and adults) section of the contest. A Rolleiflex camera with a remote control attachment was used to make the picture at f.22 at 1/250th of a second with two flashbulbs. (AP Wirephoto.)

HANLEY WITH BEWEY AT LUNCHEON—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York (left) sits beside Lieut. Gov. Joe R. Hanley at luncheon given veterans committee at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York City. A political controversy still raged respecting a letter made public in which Hanley told a friend: "If I will consent to take the nomination to the U.S. Senate I am definitely assured of being able to clean up my financial obligations within 90 days." RETURN TO RUINS—Carrying her child on her back and a sack of grain on her head, this woman waits for the return to the city as the flight-past ruins in central section of Wonsan, Korea. Refugees are beginning to return to the city as the flight-past moves on toward Pyongyang, the Red capital. (Exclusive NEA-Acme photo by Staff Photographer Richard C. Ferguson.)

SWEDEN WEAPONS—In the Oxelösund area of Sweden, two soldiers take up defensive positions for their part in the Swedish army's extensive war games. The soldier at left is using a new anti-tank weapon, Swedish counterpart of the famous American bazooka.
