Why FERGUSON PLOWS
give you quicker, easier penetration
When you use a Ferguson Plow, you don't depend on massive built-in weight for penetration—the 3-point attachment to the tractor actually pulls the plow into the ground. This natural penetrating action is aided by the unique Ferguson feature, the automatic flexible rolling landside that needs no adjustments to assure uniform furrow walls.

Each of these plows is a unit with the tractor so you need no heavy frames, no wheels, no levers, no separate lifting devices. You lift, lower and adjust depth by Finger Tip Control. There is a wide choice of genuine Ford-proved Ferguson Plow Bases to fit your soil conditions. Ask us to show you these bases and to explain their advantages.

Voters Of Oregon Again Face Battle On Liquor Issue

SALEM — (AP) — Liquor, which has caused some of Oregon's liveliest political battles, is involved in one of the most bitter fights in Oregon's general election campaign.
And the cause of it all is an initiative measure which at first almost went unnoticed. Now, it is the most controversial of all the nine ballot measures, judging from the vast amount of money being spent to fight it.

SALEM — (AP) — Handicapped children are getting a big break in their education now, but there are two classes of children which are overlooked.
They are the mentally handicapped child, who is just above the level of feeble-mindedness but not smart enough to keep up his school work; and the especially gifted child, who is so smart that he's way out in front of his classmates.

SECURITY IS SECURE
CAMP COOKE, Calif. — They teach every buck private that "loose lips can sink ships." This one learned the lesson well. One night a unit was drilling in the dark. A stranger passing by asked, "what unit is this?"
"None of your business," promptly replied the soldier.
And Brig. Gen. Homer O. Eaton, assistant commander of the recently activated 40th National Guard division, continued his lonely walk, unappreciated of the unit's name, but perhaps consoled by the thought he was wearing a security conscious outfit.
