KRNR

DIAL-LOG

By CAROL KERR

When the Skinnay Ennis band appeared in Roseburg Wednesday KRNR put the whispering-voiced band-leader and his crew on the air from 11:00 to 11:30 p.m. for the benefit of those unable to attend. On Thursday morning, six or seven members of the famed band dropped in at the KRNR studios to hear a tape-recording of the previous night's half-hour show... leaving with many thanks and glowing compliments to announcer

Bob Grant in his handling of the program... and to Chief Engineer Max Dick for the fine quality of the broadcast.

TONIGHT: Public-service lineup finds the American Legion Auxiliary broadcast slated 6:45 to 7:00 p.m. Arthur Newell speaks for the AVAL in a kickoff campaign for the annual poppy sale (7:00-7:15 p.m.). Football is the theme on "Pigskin Predictions" (7:15-7:30 p.m.). Bob Crosby, the "ole bobcat," drops in on Ben Pollack and his "Pick-a-rib" boys for the KRNR-Mutual Don Lee broadcast (7:30-8:00 p.m.). Pollack and his world-famed masters of the two-beat, back Bob, who will warble several Dixieland numbers. Hank Henry returns to describe the complete "Wrestling Parade" (8:30 p.m. to conclusion).

SUNDAY: Although the police caught the criminal, they were completely baffled as to the motive for the murder "At 9:45 A.M." the "True Detective Mysteries" drama (2:30-3:00 p.m.). Ann Rutherford and Jackie Gleason will make guest appearances on "Hollywood's Open House" (4:00-4:30 p.m.). The beautiful and tender drama, "Jane Eyre," will be presented by "The Family Theater" (4:30-5:00 p.m.) starring Donna Reed and Vincent Price in the Henry M. Chauncey, head of the education testing service at Princeton university, will be the guest for Mutual Don Lee's "Twenty Questions" broadcast (8:00-8:30 p.m.). Bob Weber, of the KRNR commercial department, and his bride-to-be, Kitty Aldred, will be interviewed by Lyle Fenner on "Here Comes the Bride" (8:30-9:00 p.m.). Music representatives of France, Germany and the United States will be featured during the "Music of All Nations" concert program by the Oklahoma Symphony (10:30-11:30 p.m.). Spot-lighted will be one of Wagner's earliest compositions, "Overture to King Enzo." Maurice Ravel's "Mother Goose Suite" and "Symphony No. 1 in E Minor" by Prof. Paul White. Dr. Victor Allesandro directs the orchestra.

Four Believed Dead In Training Plane Crash

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — The air force reported a twin-engine navigation training plane with four men aboard "is presumed to have crashed" into Lake Pontchartrain on the northern edge of New Orleans in a heavy pre-dawn fog today.

Identities were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

HUNTER FOUND DEAD

KLAMATH FALLS — (AP) — A 66-year-old Los Angeles duck hunter, Clarence George Spence, died of a heart attack while hunting in the lower Klamath area near Tulelake sometime Thursday afternoon.

He was hunting alone. His body was found Thursday night.
