GOP Lacks Funds For Radio Talks

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Republicans may let President Truman's single-shot election broadcast go unwatched on the airways. A party spokesman said today they can't dig up the money for similar radio time.

Mr. Truman's campaign closer for the Democrats—a St. Louis speech in which he plans to sum up the congressional issues Saturday night—will be broadcast by four radio networks. That kind of operation costs around $50,000, which the Democrats are ready to fork over.

A GOP headquarters spokesman, who didn't want to be quoted by name, told a reporter the Republicans haven't got that kind of money at this stage of the game.

"I don't know where the money would come from," he said.

He added that contributions to the GOP war chest hadn't been so good for the last month. Financial reports to Congress show the party has spent more than it has taken in. The Democrats, however, have a nest egg of about $800,000 for the campaign windup.
