

India Criticized For Her Indifference To Tibet

TAIPEI, Formosa — (AP) — Nationalist China's foreign minister says that Tibet was "a world danger spot like Korea and Indochina." Minister George Yeh, interviewed by the Associated Press, had his own explanation for India's concern over the reported Chinese Communist invasion of the remote land of the Lamas.

"India," he said, "has always wanted to run the affairs of Tibet as much, no doubt, as the Chinese Communists want to today."

"India has never recognized the Chinese Communists as an aggressor until this moment when her own interest is at stake and her own security is being threatened."

"If the Indian authorities had been more international-minded, they would not have been so surprised at the present development. The reported invasion of Tibet is in line with the expansionist program of the Kremlin."

Tibet will soon be as much within the Soviet sphere of influence as the territory north of the Yalu river (Manchuria)."
