

Marriage To Innkeeper Annuls Social Standing

NEW YORK — (AP) — Society's "best seller" came out Friday—the New York 1951 Social Register. Among the new "ins":
 Pretty 23-year-old model Jayne Blondgett of Mayville, Wis., who married social registerite Gordon Murray during the past year.
 The Marquess of Milford Haven, who married Mrs. Romaine Simpson of New York last February. It was somewhat of an anti-climax for the Marquess. A cousin of the King of England, he appears in another catalogue of notables—Burke's Peerage.
 Among the "still-ins" was Mrs. Winthrop (Bobo) Rockefeller, coal miner's daughter and former actress reported separated from the son of John D. Rockefeller Jr.
 The "outs" include Mrs. Henry Ford II's brother, Gerald McDona-nell, who married a contractor's daughter, and Mrs. Pinna Tew Hinton Hart, who divorced a Wall Streeter and married an innkeeper.

Supposed Pauper Leaves $15,000 in Cash, Bonds

DETROIT — (AP) — Slight, grey-haired John Sinclair spent his last six or seven years living in a dingy rooming house.
 He put in long hours at the public libraries, delving into technical books. In his 33-a-week room, he filled big notebooks with logarithmic tables and notes on higher mathematics.
 Each day he ate a little bread and milk, and maybe something from a can. He kept to himself.
 A month ago he fell sick, and his landlady took him to receiving hospital. At 77 he died Nov. 15.
 Probate court found he left $15,000 in cash and bonds, deposited in four banks here and one in Windsor, Ont. Relatives are sought.
 Fellow-occupants of Sinclair's rooming house recalled that when a census taker called on the old man he would say only that he was born in Boston.

Tito Releases Plotter After Confession Made

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — (AP) — A man the Russians once apparently regarded as strong enough to unseat Premier Marshal Tito has been released from prison after confession to a plot against the government.
 Freed after more than two years imprisonment was Mladen Zujovic, onetime close collaborator of Marshal Tito and a member of the Yugoslav Communist party's central committee before the Soviet-led Cominform broke with Tito in 1948.
 Zujovic, an old-line Communist of 25 years' party membership, formerly commanded a strong following in Yugoslavia. His release by Marshal Tito caused a sensation here.
 A section indicated that Tito had broken down one of his toughest opponents.
 The former finance minister admitted having plotted with Anatole I. Lavrentiev, then Russian ambassador in Belgrade, and having spied for the Soviet Union.
 The confession was widely publicized. Berba, the Communist party organ, devoted two-thirds of today's edition to it.

Smokers Trying To Quit Advised To Carry Extra

LONDON — (AP) — Are you trying to quit smoking? Then be sure you have a pack of cigarettes in your pocket.
 The British Medical Journal offered this free advice in its question and answer column.
 Explaining that the first week of a smoking cure is the hardest, the Journal said:
 "During this period some people find it helpful to carry a packet of cigarettes about with them and to finger them from time to time."
 "The presence of cigarettes in the pocket has a quietening effect and may prevent the panicky rush to the nearest shop which often follows the realization that no cigarettes are immediately to hand."

Russians Release Men Held Since September

BERLIN — (AP) — British military authorities announced today the Russians have released an RAF pilot and a British soldier they had been holding since September.
 Russian army officials last night turned Flight Lt. John Driver over to the British at the Hamelin bridge autobahn checkpoint near Berlin.
 They also released Army Sapper John Bennet to the British autobahn control unit at Helmstedt.
