

Marshfield Gains State Finals; PCC Grid Squads Finish Season

Pirates Clip Mac Hi Team By 19-0 Score

By The Associated Press
Marshfield Pirates of Coos Bay powered to a 19 to 0 victory over Milton-Freewater Saturday night to gain the Class A high school football state finals.

They will meet the defending champion Grant Generals next Saturday afternoon in Portland's Multnomah stadium.

In other weekend semi-final play the Pilot Rock six-man team loused a second half scoring spree to overwhelm Talent 56 to 22 and gain the finals against Triangle Lake.

Finalists for the Class B title—Badger and Union—had been determined earlier last week.

Playoff sites and dates for the six-man and "B" school championships will be set this week, perhaps today, by officials of the Oregon High School Activities association.

Lorsung, Robins Score
Halfbacks John Lorsung and Ron Robins delivered the touchdowns for Marshfield in the first, third and fourth quarters while fullback Tommy Crabtree proved the undoing of Milton-Freewater's passing ace Jerry Crimmins.

Three minutes after the kickoff, the Pirates had their first score. They moved to a first down and then Lorsung snapped out from behind his line and raced 70 yards for his first one. Robins plunged to convert the extra point.

A fumble recovery set up Marshfield's next good thrust. The Pirates got the ball on the Pioneers' 43. They moved downfield with Robins driving over on fourth down.

In the drive Lorsung had picked up 30 yards to the 8 and the Pirates then battled a savage Milton-Freewater line to gain the final one in three plays.

Stolen Ball Trick
The fourth quarter touchdown came after a stolen ball maneuver by Marshfield guard Keith Hillstrom. Milton-Freewater's end Dave Collins had received a pass from Crimmins for a 10 yard gain

Indians, Pelicans To Vie In Initial Basketball Series

The Roseburg Indians will open up their basketball wars this Friday and Saturday against the Klamath Falls Pelicans. Both games will be played on the high school court beginning at 8 p.m.

The Pelicans came in second last year in the southern district behind the powerful Grants Pass Cavemen, who were runners-up in the state. The Pelicans have three returning lettermen in Bill Toole, Tom Schubert and Jerry Overton. Also out for an Indian scalp are some outstanding boys up from last year's Jayvees.

The Pelicans should have a definite advantage over the boards since all three men in the center and forward positions are well over six feet.

Tentative starters for the Pelicans are: forwards, Ray Bell and Tom Schubert; center Ralph Carroll and guards, Bill Toole and Jerry Overton.

Coach Jack Newby of the Indians has not chosen starters yet for the initial series.

When Hillstrom snatched the ball away and downed it on the Mac-Hi 36. Three plays later, the Pirates had their final score. Lorsung plunged over from the six. Crabtree had broken up Crimmins passing game all night and kept the Pioneers from penetrating beyond the 27-yard stripe. The Mac-Hi ace was able to complete but four of his 16 passes and had three intercepted.

The Pilot Rock victory saw Brent Horn score five touchdowns to pace the Rockets in the six-man semi-final at Peadieton. Talent had held the Rockets to a two-point edge—18-16—at the halftime, but from there in the game was all Pilot Rock's.

Y Basketball Leagues To Organize Thursday

Organization of the YMCA basketball leagues will get underway this Thursday at 5 p. m. in the "Y" room of the armory.

The "Y" is planning to form three leagues to include every age group. Tentative plans are to have a league for members of the high school age group and a second for the grade schools. These will be sponsored by the various churches. The third league is for men.

Another feature, duplicated from last year, will be a basketball tournament. "Y" officials have asked that all men be present at the Thursday meeting to formulate more specific plans on the league and tournament, since organization should get underway immediately.

Pro Bears Take NFL League Lead By Mauling Rams

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Chicago Bears, a ruthless gang of gridiron killers, are on the loose again!

Once more the "Monsters of the Midway" are starting open warfare on National Football League teams. They've brutally smashed their way to the top of the National conference section of the league.

Playing their finest game of the season, the Bears stomped on Los Angeles, 24 to 14, yesterday, and ended the Rams' six-game winning streak.

Giants Upset Eagles
The American conference battle also continued to rage as the New York Giants upset the Philadelphia Eagles, 7 to 3, to tie Cleveland's idle Browns for the lead. A pair of photo-finishes are in the making.

The Rams (8-3) concluded their season against Green Bay Sunday, while the Bears (8-2) still have the Chicago Cardinals and Detroit Lions left. So the Los Angeles cause is not completely hopeless.

It's much the same with the Giants and Browns, both sporting 8-2 records with two games to play. Philadelphia gets that long-awaited crack at the Browns in Cleveland Sunday, while the Giants entertain their cross-town rivals, the Yankees. Then the Giants play the Eagles in Philadelphia and the Browns visit Washington.

Rams Set Record
In other games yesterday, which had no bearing on the divisional races, the Green Bay Packers edged San Francisco, 25-21, and Washington outlasted Baltimore, 38-28.

The Rams, however, had one consolation. Bob Waterfield and Norman Van Brocklin combined for 263 aerial yards, setting a new league standard of 3,358 yards for one season. The old record was 3,325, set by Washington in 1947.

Beavers Slap Webfoots, 14-2 In 'Civil War'

By RUSS NEWLAND
Associated Press Sportswriter

College football, with a few stragglers, was all over but for the shouting today in the far west.

California appeared to be in as the coast conference representative in the Rose bowl for the third successive year. Michigan probably will provide the other half of the colorful gridiron battle at Pasadena, New Year's day.

The Bears of California won the 1950 conference title with five wins, no defeats and one tie. Washington finished second with a 6-1 record, beaten only by the Bears, 14-7.

Indians Tie Bears
The league season ran out Saturday. Stanford and California, fighting to a 7-7 tie before 81,000 fans at Berkeley, provided the climactic thriller of the day.

CONFERENCE FINAL

Team	W	L	T	Pts.	PP	GP
California	5	0	1	1,000	287	194
Washington	6	1	0	857	194	93
UCLA	3	2	0	714	170	74
Stanford	2	2	2	360	77	24
Idaho	1	1	1	300	40	41
Wash. State	2	2	2	400	108	22
Oregon State	2	3	0	380	74	43
Southern Cal.	1	3	2	250	77	128
Oregon	0	7	0	300	55	152

Underdog Stanford's Indians threw a mighty scare into the big Bears. California was 13½ point favorite to whip a Stanford team that had lost to UCLA, Washington and Army and had been held to a tie by Southern California.

California scored on the ground, a 31-yard touchdown run by halfback Pete Schabarum in the third period. Stanford tallied in the fourth, from the five-yard line on a wide pass from quarterback Gary Kerkerian to halfback Boyd Benson. Both teams failed on other scoring opportunities, including a 37-yard field goal try by Stanford's star eni, Bill McColl.

Portly, usually placid Lynn Waldorf of California worked himself into a small dither during the Stanford game. It was too close for comfort. Big stakes rode on the outcome.

Huskies Rate Second
Only two teams scored more than seven points against California this season. They were Santa Clara, with a touchdown and safety in the opening game which California won, 27-9 and St. Mary's, with four touchdowns while losing 25-40. However, practically every player on the California bench, got a chance in the St. Mary's contest.

Washington, runner-up in the conference standings, closed out its season with a resounding 52-21 victory over Washington State. It was made possible by the brilliant passing of quarterback Don Heinrich and the running of Hugh McElheny.

UCLA, finishing third in the league, chalked up its greatest win of the year by trouncing cross-town rival, Southern California, 39-0.

Oregon State topped off its schedule with a 14-2 over Oregon, which ended up in the conference cellar, no wins and seven losses. The ninth member of the circuit, Idaho, closed up shop by taking a 21-48 whipping from a strong Arizona State college of Tempe club.

Yale football teams have scored more than 100 points in four games, three of them against Wesleyan—142-9 in 1886, 106-0 in 1887 and 105-0 in 1888. The fourth was a 113-0 scalping of Dartmouth in 1884.

College Cagers To Open Season

By The Associated Press
Sports fans turned from the football stadium to the maple court today as Northern division, Pacific Coast conference basketball made a fast-break bid for attention.

Neither Oregon nor Oregon State will waste any time on the seasonal changeover. Both embark on road trips this weekend—Oregon moving into Utah and the Beavers swinging into the Midwest and East.

Oregon State gets under way Thursday with Washington, scheduled for Saturday night in Buffalo, N. Y., against Canisius. Three days later it will be Madison Square Garden and New York university. Then on Dec. 7, the Beavers open a midwest swing which takes them against Bradley, Illinois and Indiana on successive nights.

Oregon opens play Friday night in Salt Lake City against Utah. Utah State will be the Saturday opponent. Returning north, the Ducks will play Portland in the Rose city Dec. 5 and open the Eugene season with a Dec. 8 appearance against UCLA's defending Pacific Coast conference title.

At Seattle, where Coach Tippy Dye is introducing a new system, the University of Washington Huskies get off to a slower start. The Huskies will make their initial game appearance against Nebraska Dec. 8-9.

New Marks Set By Husky Aces
By JACK HEWINS
SPOKANE, Wash. — (AP) — The marks on Spokane's new Memorial stadium might look today like mere cleat tracks to a stranger, but to the 30,000 people who sat there Saturday they spelled this message:

"Heinrich and McElheny came through here in the fall of 1950."

In a game touched by tragedy and jammed with drama, the record wrecking Washington Huskies blasted the Washington State college Cougars 52 to 21, to wind up their season in second place in the Pacific coast conference.

Along the way quarterback Don Heinrich broke one national and one conference passing record and Hugh McElheny wiped out a conference rushing standard. Heinrich now holds all the circuit's passing marks.

Washington even gave away a touchdown to get its hands on the ball in the final minute for the last record outburst. Heinrich needed one completion and McElheny needed a couple of yards. Don flipped to senior Rollie Kirkby to make it 134 for the season, by being by one the national reception record set in 1947 by Chuck Coe of Ole Miss.

And then with the play at fourth down and 12 to go, he fed the ball to McElheny and Hurryin' Hugh got all the yards he needed, going 84 strides down the sidelines to a touchdown—his fifth of the game.

The big, bouncing fullback piled up 296 net yards in the game to make his season's total 1,107, compared to the record 1,010 set in 1948.

But the cold figures and cold facts are two stories. Just before the game the Washington State team learned that the brother of center Lavern Torjeson had been apprehended while sleeping in a car in which the motor was running. Torjeson was so shaken he did not attempt to play.

Crystal Ball Gazers Miss The Boat On '50 Grid Year

NEW YORK — (AP) — What a difference two months can make! Remember the start of the college football season at the end of September?

Notre Dame was going to rule the roost nationally. . . . Cornell was to take the Ivy league championship. . . . Stanford was the class of the west coast. Now that the season is practically over, it doesn't seem possible that anyone could see the picture that way.

Some of the early season predictions did come true, though. Michigan was thought to be the best team in the Big 10. It was a mighty close squeak, but the Wolverines made it and today were expected to be tapped officially for the trip to the Rose bowl.

Bears Underestimated
On the west coast, the champion California Bears were regarded as also-rans behind Stanford and Southern California. But Pappy Waldorf is not a man to take the experts seriously, so his team too, is expected to be tapped today for the Rose bowl.

Texas was loaded and everybody knew it. The Longhorns did not disappoint. Even though Southern Methodist went to the top of the heap in the early stages of the season. But now, after losing three of their last four games, the Mustangs are just about out of the running for any bowl consideration.

And who would have thought Princeton would finish its season unbeaten and untied? The Tigers won the Ivy league championship and there is a suspicion in many quarters that they could give any team in the nation a battle.

Before hostilities started Tennessee was regarded behind only Notre Dame, Army and Michigan. Kentucky was way down the list. The Vols were all but forgotten until Kentucky sold them short Saturday. The moral of that one is never let Bob Neyland's team get a lead on you.

Cotton Bowl Invitations
Well, that's how it went right down the line. . . . High pre-season expectations ground into the turf. . . . teams that were expected to do nothing, rising into the clouds.

With only a smattering of games left next Saturday, four major teams remained unbeaten and untied — Princeton, Oklahoma, Wyoming and Army.

All have nine victories except Army which has eight. The season is over for Princeton and Wyoming, while Army still must tangle with Navy Saturday and Oklahoma must get past Oklahoma A and M.

In addition to the Rose bowl, the combatants in the only one other major bowl — the Cotton — are selected. They will be Texas and Tennessee. Kentucky has accepted and invitation to the Sugar bowl at New Orleans, but its opponent won't be known until Oklahoma writes finish on the season's business. The Sooners probably will be there come Jan. 1, though.

Tacoma Rockets Knock Off Portland Eagles

By The Associated Press
Tacoma's Rockets knocked off the first and second place teams in the Pacific Coast Hockey league's weekend activity and were hard on the heels of the runnerup Portland Eagles today.

The third place Rockets clipped the Rose city 4-1 last night and dumped New Westminster's pace-setters 4-3 Saturday.

Doug Adam was the sparkplug of the Tacoma attack against Portland, scoring the winning goal and assisting in two other third period tallies.

The game was delayed for 15 minutes in the second period while both sides wrangled over a disputed Portland goal. It was disallowed but not before Tacoma goalie Doug Stevenson drew a 10-minute misconduct penalty and Portland Coach Tony Hemmerling was penalized for walking across the ice to talk to the goal judges.
