Boudreau was replaced recently as manager of the Indians by Al Lopez.

The Sox' announcement gave no details. It said merely:

"General Manager Joe Cronin announced that Lou Boudreau has accepted terms of the Boston Red Sox and will join the team as a player."

The Sox added that to make room for Boudreau, pitcher Gordon Mueller's contract has been sold outright to the Louisville farm team of the American association.

Sports Schedules Made At NW Conference Meet

PORTLAND — (AP) — The Northwest conference continued its annual meeting Saturday after completing spring sports schedules.

There was no indication that the rumored effort of some Evergreen conference schools to gain admission to the Northwest conference was more than a rumor. No applications were on hand or expected, officials said. Moreover, at Spokane, Evergreen conference members said there was nothing to it.

Archie Kodros, Whitman, was elected president of the coaches' section and Johnny Lewis, Willamette, was named secretary-treasurer.

Michigan Voted Rose Bowl Entry For Big Ten

CHICAGO — (AP) — The Big Ten voted to send its newly-crowned football champion, Michigan's Wolverines, into the Rose Bowl next New Year's day.

K. L. (Tug) Wilson, conference commissioner, announced the outcome of the Big Ten ballot and said that Michigan Athletic Director H. O. (Fritz) Crisler and Faculty Representative Ralph W. Aigler have been notified.

Under provision of the bowl agreement the faculty representative of each member institution participates in the balloting to select the Big Ten entry.

After last Saturday's concluding games of the 1950 season, members wired their votes to the conference office and rated three teams in the order of their preference. The vote tally was not disclosed nor was the order of selection after Michigan.

This January's game marks the fifth and last engagement between the two conferences under the current five-year agreement.

Michigan's selection gives the Wolverines the honor of being the first Big Ten team to repeat in the Rose Bowl since the present pact was started in 1947.

Wilson said he had talked to Crisler this morning advising him of the outcome of the bowl.

Crisler disclosed that the Michigan players earlier had voted to accept a possible bowl bid.

Government Launches War On Communist Party That May Drag Along For Years

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government has fired the opening gun in what may well be a history-making battle with the Communist party in the United States.

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath has formally charged that American Reds are ruled by Soviet Russia and owe first allegiance to "the Red Flag."

He called on the new subversive activities control board to force the party to register with him the names of its leaders and members, and give an accounting of its sources of revenue.

His petition, running to nearly 5,000 words, constituted the most sweeping condemnation of U. S. Communist activity ever put out by any official of this government.

"In the event of a war between the Soviet Union and the United States," McGrath said, "The Communists in the United States have obligated themselves to act to defeat the military efforts of the United States and to aid and support the Soviet Union."

Should such a war materialize, he added, the Communist party plans calls for civil insurrection in the United States for the purpose of establishing "a Soviet America having a dictatorship of the proletariat such as exists in the Soviet Union."

McGrath's petition put the next move squarely up to the Communist party. It must now appear before the board to explain its reason for not registering voluntarily.

The board has subpoena power to back this up.

Long Court Battle Looms

After hearings, the board must decide whether to order registration. Failure to comply with the order calls for fines and imprisonment. The Communist party has said it will fight registration through the courts on the ground that it is a violation of the civil liberties clause of the constitution.

Such a legal battle might take years.

The attorney general's office has about 100 organizations described as Communist on its "subversive list." None has appeared to register voluntarily. However, a ct ion against other groups may be postponed pending a ruling in the present case. Explaining this one justice department official said:

"You can't classify a splinter until you have labeled the tree."

Control Board members have indicated that hearings will be called soon. But it is generally estimated that the proceeding may run to two years or more, before any final judgment is reached.

Yule Lighting Contest Hints Given By Jaycees

Many home and apartment owners in the Roseburg area have entered the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce Christmas lighting contest, Gordon G. Carlson, chairman of the contest committee, reported.

Carlson said home and apartment owners are urged to get together by streets or neighborhoods and carry out particular themes, such as Mother Goose rhymes, fairy tales, toyland, uniform decorations for windows, trees and shrubbery, or scenes from the poem, "Night Before Christmas."

Many home and apartment owners have indicated they would like to enter the contest and have asked Carlson for suggestions. Carlson submitted the following suggestions for contestants:

A revolving decorated tree may be set up in the yard.

The entire front door may be decorated to resemble a Christmas package. This package may be illuminated with cardboard candles at either side.

The entire front door may be decorated to resemble a Christmas-time fireplace.

Decorations of Santa and his sleigh may be created. The reindeer may be in single file or in pairs, in the yard or on the roof. They may be stationary or galloping. Other animals, such as Disney characters, may be used to pull the sleigh.

Dolls or Disney characters may ride as passengers on a revolving Ferris wheel or merry-go-round in the yard.

Any number of variations of Santa going down the chimney may be used. He may be on the roof, part way in the chimney, or climbing a ladder placed against the chimney. Reindeer in the yard or on the roof may be watching the proceedings.

Snowmen may be placed on the roof, in the yard or by the door. Winking eyes, or a lighted red nose might add to the jovial mood.

Religious themes, such as the nativity scene or church scenes, may be used.

Tall candles might be used to decorate the yard. Elves might be climbing ladders to light the candles.

Wreaths may be placed in windows. Colored lights may be strung along the eaves or may be used to outline shrubbery, doors, windows, gables and so forth.

Carlson said all persons desiring to enter the contest should notify the Christmas decorating committee, Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, Box 681, Roseburg, before December 18. Full information regarding the contest, including rules and regulations, will be sent upon request, he said.
