Korean Guerrilla Activity Spreads

MOSCOW.—Two Russian newsmen reported today Red Guerrillas in Korea "are now operating in all occupied areas of the country."

Their dispatch was published in Pravda.

"Hundreds and even thousands of Partisans derail trains carrying American arms, blow up bridges and cut communications, giving the invaders not a day's respite," the Russian correspondents wrote.

"The news of the Chinese volunteers' participation in the liberation war has been taken by radio to the remotest corners of Korea where heroic Korean Partisans are waging the struggle against the hateful enemies."

"Deep in the rear... new Partisan detachments have been formed and named in honor of Mao Tze-Tung and Chu Teh—the glorious leaders of the Chinese people who have extended the hand of fraternal aid to Korea."

Mao Tze-Tung is head of the Peiping Red Chinese government. Chu Teh is commander in chief of the Communist Chinese army.
