Truman Requests Gift Autographs

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman, a famous father of a famous daughter, knows what he's going to get for Christmas. He's going to get the autographs of more than 200 daughters of members of the National Press club.

Mr. Truman asked for them himself.

He and Margaret were guests at the club's annual father-daughter dinner Wednesday night. All through the meal the girls kept up a steady parade to Mr. Truman's table, getting his autograph.

The traffic was so heavy that at one point the Press club president, Radford Mobley, asked would the kids stop coming, please, so that the President could eat!

At the end of the program, Mr. Truman got up and said: "As usual, it's been a wonderful evening." He then ran through the entertainers, who included everyone from the comedian, Jimmy Savo, to a bunch of kids, "Juvenile Jury." He said he liked them all. "It was well worth the price of admission," he said, "and it didn't cost me anything."

Then he had a special message for the youngsters: "I want every one of you young ladies to send me a Christmas card, and I want you to write on it, 'I was at the Press club Father-Daughter dinner — here's my autograph.'"

"It's been a wonderful evening," he said, "and I haven't had many here lately."

Rummel Murder Launches Probe Into L.A. Vice

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The shotgun blast that killed attorney Sam Rummel, "mouthpiece" for underworld characters, today promises to blow the lid off protected gambling in Los Angeles.

Two sheriff's officers, vice squad Sgt. Lawrence Schaffer and Capt. Carl H. Pearson, former head of the county grand jury is digging again into the case of the Guarantee Finance Co., an allegedly protected $6,000,000-a-year front for bookmaking operations, and what connection Rummel had with it, if any.

Particularly, the police and the grand jury want to know why Rummel called Pearson and Schaffer to a secret conference about Guarantee Finance Sunday night, a few hours before the lawyer was slain early Monday morning.

Pearson was under subpoena by the grand jury, which has opened its probe. Schaffer took some Guarantee Finance Sunday night, a few sheriff's office to the meeting with Rummel.

Both Pearson and Schaffer said they still aren't sure whether Rummel was trying to get, or give, information.

Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz suspended the officers because they did not disclose their rendezvous with Rummel until Monday night, more than 12 hours after the lawyer was killed.

Gov. Earl Warren in Sacramento said the Rummel killing "be-smirches the name of our state again." He called it "just another outcropping of gang warfare which springs from fighting over the spoils of the underworld."

The jury foreman, Carey S. Hill, told reporters: "Of all things! Imagine Carl Pearson, a public official, visiting the attorney for all the gangsters on the very eve of the grand jury investigation. It demonstrates what we want to prove." Hill said Rummel had no official concern with the Guarantee Finance case.

Pearson, now in the sheriff's record section, headed the vice squad when the Guarantee Finance case was under investigation early this year.
