Pro Contracts Frowned Upon in Northwest
OLYMPIA — (AP) — Atty. Gen. Smith "roy said yesterday he will ask the state legislature to make it a criminal offense for professional baseball representatives to sign athletes still in high school."
"I will draw up the bill and I am pretty sure the legislature will look upon it with favor," Troy said.
The proposal follows action by minor and major league baseball officials in eliminating the game's former "no prep" rule.
PORTLAND — (AP) — The Oregon School Activities association is strongly opposed to professional baseball leagues signing high school players — but has made no move to ask for legislation against it.
Tom Pigott, association secretary, made that report today. He added that the subject is scheduled for discussion at the last day of the Dec. 27-30 meeting in Mobile, Ala., of the National Association of School Athletic Associations.

Cowboy Carlson To Face Wallick On Mat Program
Cowboy Carlson, the rodeo performer from Cheyenne, Wyo., has suddenly found his stride, and here last week defeated Gus Johnson, Seattle veteran, with his increasingly effective "bulldozing" hold. The Westerner, who wears jeans and hangs his Stetson on the ring post, will get the acid test at the Roseburg arena. Leo Wallick, awaiting a return engagement against Herb Parks, will furnish the opposition for Carlson.
The Carlson-Wallick bout will be the semi-final to the non-title headliner between Maurice LaChapelle of France and Herb Parks of Canada, coast junior heavyweight king.
Rookie Facing Deaton
Opening the weekly mat show, getting under way at 8:30 p. m., will be a one-fall affair between Danny O'Rourke of Hillsboro and Glen Deaton of Salt Lake City. O'Rourke, a cadet at West Point for two years, is a rookie in pro wrestling, but in recent weeks has displayed fine possibilities.
Deaton, who last week had a shot at Andy Tremaine's world light-heavyweight title, wasn't ready for an experienced star like the Texan, although he gained the chance with a brilliant "Battle Royal" triumph the previous week. He lost in a straight fall to Tremaine, but earned for himself an "8" for effort.

Browns Favored To Beat Giants; Coach Disagrees
BY BUD SPRUNGER
CLEVELAND — (AP) — Bettors may have established the Cleveland Browns as seven-point favorites over the New York Giants, but not Coach Paul Brown.
"It's ridiculous," he declared. "Why, the Giants beat us the other two times we had each other."
"I'd sure like to know on what basis the points were spotted," he continued. "I thought for once we'd be the underdogs and the players feel like underdogs."
"We're going at it on the basis that we have everything to win and nothing to lose," he added.
The two clubs, tied with 10-2 records, meet here Sunday. At stake is the championship of the National Football League's American conference. The winner meets the National conference champ. That will be decided by a game between the Chicago Bears and Los Angeles.

IDAHO TEAM BLASTED
CHENEY, Wash. — (AP) — Powerful Eastern Washington College threw three full teams at College of Idaho last night to outrun the Coyotes for a 73-37 basketball victory.
Eastern led at the halftime 36-15. Pat Whitehill paced the victors with 13 points, six more than COI's Bill Kennewick and L. Larsen.

LaChapelle Effective
Should LaChapelle upset Parks, he is certain to get the first chance at the coast junior heavy title after Parks defends his crown against Wallick. In defeating the rugged Buddy Fox last week, LaChapelle's "hangman holds" and head-snappers were extremely effective and he just might turn the trick against the leg-stomping Parks.
The program is one of the best-balanced of the season and should attract another large crowd.
PHILLIPS WINS
WALLA WALLA — (AP) — The defending National AAU Basketball champion, Phillips Phillips O'Brien, marked up their fourth straight victory of a Pacific Northwest tour last night, easing past Whitman, 87-28.
Seven-foot Bob Kurland took only six shots, connected on five, and tied with teammate Paul Courty for high point honors with 11 points.
The offensive starting eleven of both the Los Angeles Rams and the New York Yanks average 212 pounds per man.

THREE APPLY
COLUMBUS, O. — (AP) — Ohio State University said today three men have applied formally for the head coaching job vacated recently by the resignation of Wesley Fessler.
They are Nick Wasyluk, former OSU quarterback, now assistant coach at Colgate; Warren Gaer, coach at Drake University, and John Kohn, high school coach at Fort Arthur, Tex., who has lost only two of his last 44 games.
