Listeners to "Mutual Newsreel

Listeners to "Mutual Newsreel (8:45.9:00 p.m., Mon., Wed., Fri.) are a well-informed group, especially where national affairs are concerned. During 1950, the program presented a total of 384 representatives and 67 senators who discussed all aspects of the federal government's activities. In addition to these Washington figures. "Mutual Newsreel" presented other outstanding events during the past year, including reports from the UN, on the spot reports of the assassination attempt on President Truman, reports from the Korean war front and other events of worldwide importance. "Mutual Newsreel" is brought to listeners in the Roseburg area by Lockwood, Motors.

night of VE-Day. Tuesday, May 8, 1945. No ratio broadcast in a himory created such an intense stir. So great was the demand for a repeat broadcast of the show that it was given a second airing on the following Sunday, May 13. This time, the response was even a greater. In Los Angeles alone, KNX reported a record-breaking flood of more than 1,600 phone calls, while operators at CBS head-quarters in New York remarked that "the switchboard remained lit up like a Christmas tree" following the broadcast, Thirty-five-syear-old Norman Corwin, writer and producer of the show, is said to be the greatest radio writer in the United States and possibly the world. "On a Note of Triumph" is narrated by Martin Gabel (tonight, 10:30-11:30). SALEM — (A) — Civil defense directors of Oregon, Washington and California will meet in Portland late next week to prepare mutual aid compacts.

Under these agreements, the three states will agree to help each other in event of enemy attack or other disaster.

The three civil defense directors are Louis E. Starr of Oregon, Maj. Gen. w. m. robertson of California, and Philip D. Batson of Washington.

Cafe Operator Reports 2nd Robbery In Month

PORTLAND - (A) -A restaurant operator reported a lone gunman held him up on a sidewalk here Monday and escaped with a bagful of money.

The restaurant operator, W. T. Yaw Jr., said he could not esti-mate the total.

Yaw said he stepped out of his east side restaurant in mid-after-noon, only to be held up at once. The man jumped into a car at the curb and escaped. This was at a normally busy intersection, but police said no wit-nesses could be found. Yaw also reported a $200 robbery a month
