

Draftee Having Civilian Debts Offered Advice

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON — (AP) — What about your civilian debts if you're called into military service?

TO ISLAND COMMAND — Maj. Gen. Robert S. Dougherty, above, wartime commander of Ohio's 37th Infantry Division...

Changes in State School System Proposed in Bills

SALEM — (AP) — Thirty seven bills, carrying out the Holy reformatory recommendations for wholesale changes in the state school system...

The recommendations were made last September by Dr. T. C. Holy, Ohio State university education professor...

Reorganize the department of education, let school districts adopt a permanent tax base...

The committee sponsored Governor McKay's bill to reduce the terms of members of the State Board of Higher Education...

More Teeth For Election Law — A bill putting more teeth in the corrupt practices law...

His bill would require that all political campaign contributors be identified by name and address...

Campaign expense statements would have to be filed twice — within seven to 10 days before an election...

Neuberger said his bill also would make it possible to determine the total cost of each candidate's campaign...

Fishing areas for youngsters under 14 years old would be provided by a bill introduced by the Senate Game Commission.

'Blue Sky' Law Violation Found

EUGENE — (AP) — R. A. Blanchard and George P. Simons, both of Portland, were declared guilty Thursday of violating Oregon "blue sky" laws governing the sale of securities.

In an opinion, Circuit Judge William C. East said the men had, without a license, sold securities in a general offering to the public.

This upset a defense contention that some $200,000 raised in Lane county and elsewhere in Oregon and Washington to finance oil-well development in Montana and Wyoming was a subscription of capital by members of a joint venture.

Judge East noted that, although both defense and state witnesses testified to a plan to form a voluntary organization conforming to the securities laws, the defendants "at no time did so."

The Portland men were charged with selling the securities locally during the summer of 1947.

Sidney Milligan, defense lawyer, of Eugene, said that an appeal is planned. Judge East continued the defendants' bonds of $200,000 each. No time was set for sentencing.

HOUSE ON THE MOVE

MOOSE JAW, Sask. — (AP) — An 18-room farmhouse was moved 125 miles to Moose Jaw in 24 hours.

Two linemen accompanied the moving crew to clear overhead lines. The house was settled on its new foundations with no damage except a few broken window panes.

You may have a lease on your home, or a mortgage, or you were buying something on time, or paying on life insurance, or you owe taxes.

And is your family thrown out because you no longer can afford the rent you used to pay?

There's only one single answer to all that: your civilian debts are not just automatically wiped out because you've gone into uniform.

Under law — whether you're called in as a national guardman, reservist or draftee—you get some relief or protection on debts.

What you get depends on your particular case and your kind of debt.

You may have to pay off in full while you're in the service, if it's found you can afford to; or you may have to pay only part of your debt while in service; or you may not have to pay until you're discharged.

One man going into service may reach a satisfactory arrangement with his creditor, whether it's an individual or a department store.

The case of another may have to be solved by a judge when the creditor goes to court to get satisfaction on his debt.

How To Obtain Advice — This is the best single bit of advice for you if you're going into the service and know you can't take care of your debts:

Get some legal advice. You can do it this way:

1. Before going into service consult an attorney, if you can afford one of your own, or seek advice of the Red Cross, a veterans organization or the local bar association.

2. If you're already in service—consult the legal assistance officer of your outfit. There's supposed to be one in every camp and on every ship.

If there's none in your outfit, start the ball rolling by consulting your commanding officer.

Income Tax Procedure — The following explanation is in this story and the one which follows—comes from government experts in the field:

Federal income tax— If you're called to service you don't have to pay that civilian income tax until six months after leaving the service.

But you must notify your internal revenue collector that you are in the service and want payment delayed until you're discharged.

State income tax— The rule on what a serviceman must do about his state income tax varies from state to state. So, on this, check with your state collector.

State property taxes and assessments— If you can't pay them because you're in service, notify your state or county tax collector.

He can't sell your property for taxes owed unless he goes to court and gets an order from a judge permitting him to sell it.

If the tax collector takes your case to court the judge can:

1. Postpone sale of your property—for taxes owed—for any length of time up to six months after you get out of service.

2. Tell the collector to go ahead and sell the property but—and this is an important but—if the judge lets this happen, then:

You can get it back after leaving the service by then paying up the taxes owed, provided you do it within six months after leaving the service.

The judge will base his decision on his belief in your ability to pay, or not to pay, while you're in service.
