

Spitzbart Appeals Ouster To Civil Service Board

SALEM — (AP) — State fair manager Leo Spitzbart said that his dismissal was a "deep shock." He said that state agriculture Director E. L. Peterson's charge that Spitzbart has been guilty of inefficiency and insubordination is untrue.

Spitzbart said that the 1950 fair was successful, "both in attendance and financially."

"Having been associated with the Oregon State fair since 1915 and a manager since 1935, I have served under five governors and three directors of agriculture," Spitzbart said.

"I emphatically deny Mr. Peterson's charges of inefficiency and insubordination.

"The financial and attendance record of the fair in recent years refute any major administrative difficulties.

"In protection of my several years of service, I am compelled to appeal my arbitrary dismissal to the Oregon State Civil Service commission," he continued.

Here's a bit of disillusionment for Ava Gardner fans . . . in an item treated with no little sarcasm in the current issue of "Capitol News" . . . "MGM in Hollywood" went ahead and gave the Julie role in "Show Boat" to Ava Gardner, who can't sing a lick, after testing several beautiful gals, such as Peggy Lee, who could do the job the way the part was intended to be played. Miss Gardner's songs will be dubbed in by another voice, naturally. But millions of the audiences won't know it unless it's not synchronized, as those big Technicolor musicals frequently are.

GRAND SCALE testimonial dinners for screen stars in the film capital are commonplace affairs. But it's quite a unusual thing when the top flight film stars turn the tables and place an outsider on the dais in the guest of honor's seat. And that's just what is planned for tonight (8:00-9:30 p.m.) when Judy Garland will be mistress of ceremonies of a gala affair in honor of Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc, state senator from

MacArthur Shorn Of Some Power, Scribe Reports

CHICAGO — (AP) — The Chicago Daily News said in a story from Tokyo that there is evidence that Washington has stripped Gen. MacArthur of "authority to speak freely" in the Korean war.

The story, by Keyes Beech of the Daily News foreign service, said that view "although Gen. MacArthur retains titular command of the United Nations forces in Korea."

Beech's dispatch, as released by a Chicago Daily news, said also: "This came out Wednesday night in the form of an unprecedented action taking away from MacArthur the authority to issue communiques on current ground military operations in Korea."

"This authority was transferred to Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, 8th army commander. All U. S. forces come under the 8th army."

Beech said the new setup was announced by Col. Marion P. Echols, MacArthur's public information officer. His story added: "MacArthur's headquarters is reduced to releases of general nature, human interest stories and awards and decorations."

"Not in the memory of the oldest correspondents covering MacArthur's headquarters for a decade has the illustrious general been submitted to such a buttoning up."

and Eugene LaBelle, the Ashland victims.

The action against Lester Pierce, operator of the Pierce Flying service here, charges that Frank Halston, the pilot, who also was killed, flew too low and was not licensed for instrument flying as he should have been. The plane crackup occurred in Mad canyon 18 minutes after the takeoff from the airport here.

Rules Committee Seat To Be Given Rep. Ellsworth

The Washington bureau of the Portland, Oregon Journal, reports that barring an unforeseen, eventually, Representative Harris Ellsworth of Roseburg will become, within the next few days, the West coast's first representative in modern times on the powerful house rules committee.

Nevada Region Chosen To Test Atomic Weapons

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Atomic Energy commission has announced plans to test atomic weapons on a closely guarded bombing range in Nevada.

The experiments will mark the first nuclear explosions in the United States since the first A-bomb was tested in New Mexico in 1945.

The commission's announcement said President Truman has authorized it to use part of the 5,000-square mile bombing and gunnery range reservation of the air force near Las Vegas, Nev.

It added: "The use of the Las Vegas bombing and gunnery range will make available to the Los Alamos (N.M.) scientific laboratory a readily accessible site for periodic test work with a resultant speed-up in the weapons development program. Test activities at the new site will include experimental nuclear detonation for the development of atomic bombs—so-called A-bombs—carried out under controlled conditions.

"Full security restrictions of the atomic energy act will apply to the work at the new site and during test periods the AEC section of the reservation will be closed to all persons except those directly connected with the experimental programs."

Close attention has been given the problems of radiological safety and security, the AEC said, and all necessary precautions including radiation surveys and patrolling of the surrounding territory will be undertaken.

The commission added that it will continue to use the Eniwetok proving grounds in the Marshall islands of the Pacific ocean.

No explanation was offered on what the AEC meant by "experimental nuclear detonation." Discussion of the proposed hydrogen bomb have brought out that these vastly more powerful explosives might be set off by a "conventional" A-bomb.

MR. BUSINESSMAN!

... if you make your living by selling something to the general public, whether it be furniture, clothing, insurance or auto repairs—you know how important it is to impress as many folks as possible with the advantages of buying from you. The more people you convince—the more you prosper.

That's why smart businessmen know that newspaper advertising is their wisest investment. They know their advertising in the News-Review speaks not to a mere audience, but to a living parade of CUSTOMERS. If all the folks who read the News-Review stood two abreast, each occupying a three foot square space — THEY WOULD FORM A LINE NEARLY SEVEN MILES LONG! Want to reach them? Phone 100.

Portland Hospitals Boost Pay; One Still Picketed

PORTLAND — (AP) — Seven Portland hospitals have announced pay increases for non-professional workers, but the move had no effect on the strike against Good Samaritan hospital.

It appeared that picketing of Emanuel hospital also would continue.

An increase of $1 a day in patients' bills was hinted.

James G. Swindells, attorney for the Portland council of hospitals, said the decision to increase pay resulted from continuing studies that started last July.

The A.P.I. building service employees union struck Good Samaritan and picketed Emanuel in an effort to get more money and union security. The union asked $1 an hour as the starting minimum.

Latest announced increase, to go into effect Monday, puts beginning wages at from 85 to 92 cents an hour. The change also reduces from five to three years the span needed to reach the top pay bracket.

Swindells said the increase would add about $1 per patient to hospitals' costs and he thought the increase would have to be made soon.
