Wife "Constantly Beaten" Kills Husband With Gun

WALLA WALLA — (AP) — A 39-year-old woman is held without charge here for the bathtub slaying of her husband.

The victim was Daniel Paul Ramsey, 41, an unemployed car-room dealer.

Prosecutor Albert M. Bradford said Mrs. Teresa Ramsey signed a statement in which she said: "I shot my husband because no man is going to constantly beat me up and get by with it."

Officers said Ramsey was shot in the head and shoulder with a .22 rifle while he was taking a bath shortly before 1 a.m. His wife summoned police immediately.

Bradford said Mrs. Ramsey reported they had been quarreling violently during the evening. She bore bruises and signs of having had a bloody nose.
