Winston-Dillard Home Extension Club Plans Food Sale For Azalea House

By MRS. GEORGE BACHER News-Review Correspondent A cooked food sale, under the auspices of the Winston-Dillard Home Extension club, will be held at Howard's hardware store in Winston Thursday, Jan. 18. Proceeds will be used to help defray expenses on the Azalea house project. The Azalea house, which is being constructed on the OSC campus in Corvallis, is dependent upon funds from the various Home Extension units for its completion. All members of the Winston-Dillard Home Extension club are invited to attend the all-day meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Charles McCord in Dillard, on Wednesday, Jan. 17. Topic for discussion will be "Home Furnishing and Furniture Arrangement," and a potluck luncheon will be served at the noon hour. The windstorm which roared through Winston on Wednesday night is reported to have done little damage. The high winds eased off in the early morning hours, bringing rain to the valleys and snow to the higher elevations. Snow-capped mountains surrounded the area on Thursday morning, some of which did not melt off during the daylight hours. Los Barnes of Winston has accepted employment with the California Oregon Power company at the Toketee Falls project on the North Umpqua. Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson will remain in Portland for an indefinite period. A sudden death in their family on the eve of their planned departure for their home in Winston, has delayed them in that city. Recent house guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harrison were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hooker and three children of Medford.
