THE BUICK ROADMASTER RIVIERA—This new version of the "hard tops", pioneered by Buick in 1949, features an entirely new front end and new rocker panel and saddle moldings to enhance the distinctive sweep-spear molding which also was first introduced on Buicks. New interior features include a new instrument panel with white-glow lighting. The 1951 Buick Riviera is on display at the Roseburg Motor company.

Ex-Mr. America To Face Davidson On Mat Program

All of Douglas county is talking about the coming wrestling rematch between Soldat Gorky and Leo Wallick at the Roseburg armory arena Saturday night—but Matchmaker Elton Owen predicts that the gossip will be centered around Eric Pedersen after Saturday's weekly show.

Pedersen, "The Viking" from Duluth, Minn., will be making his local debut as another former "Mr. America." Without a doubt he has one of the most amazing physiques in any sport. Pedersen's arm muscles are even larger than those of Georges Dusette and he enjoys an unbreakable "pressure headlock" for his triumphs.

Opposing the young adonis will be the old Texas workhorse, Buck Davidson who now wrestles out of Blamath Falls. The tough Davidson, who specializes in the surboard might give Pedersen a rough time in his local debut.

Capacity Crowd Expected
Another capacity crowd is expected this week—and most of the fans will be on hand to see the Gorky-Wallick battle, with the hopes that Wallick beats the Russian ruffian. Last week Wallick won the decision from the commission, following a "sneak attack" by Gorky after he had KO'ed Referee Sugs Hayamaki.

The match this week will be under a no-disqualification rule, but the commission rejected Wallick's proposal to a "nothing-barrid" brawl. Although Gorky won his lone fall with a jack-knife and Wallick with a body press, both will be aiming for their pet holds—Gorky the "Siberian wolf leap"; Wallick the piledriver. "I'm ready," is all Wallick said this week during intensive training work.

The Pedersen-Davidson opener will get under way at 8:30 p. m. Maurice LaChappelle, popular and talented wrestling Frenchman, will referee both bouts.

Bribe By AAU Officials To Be Investigated

BALTIMORE — (AP)—Ed Rosenblum of Washington, chairman of the national AAU's legislation committee, today had instructions to investigate an alleged statement by Pineus Sober, former track and field chairman, that AAU delegates had tried to "buy him off" in the Gehrman-Wilt mile run controversy.

Albert F. Whittle, Baltimore attorney who is president of the AAU named Rosenblum to the task yesterday with the comment that until it's clarified, the statement is "an aspersion on everyone in the AAU."

K And M Win Throws AAU League Into Three-Way Tie

The towering K and M's sweated out a 32-28 win from the J C Sporting goods quintet last night at Benson to cinch a first place tie in the first half Umpqua Valley basketball league.

Thus the K and M's share the same five-won-one-lost record with Firmeo of Myrtle Creek, which lost only one in six games, this to K and M. As it stands each of the top teams has beaten one of the other leaders. Myrtle Creek slapped K and M; K and M defeated Riddle and Riddle raked Myrtle Creek.

K and M Kept Under Control
The J C's put up a stiff struggle last night before finally giving in to the taller winners. K and M was never overwhelmingly ahead and with the speedy J C squad anything could have happened up to the end.

The losers kept the scoring down from the first by going into a stall and it almost worked to upset the favorites. The two teams were tied at 8-all at the end of the first quarter and K and M had a bare three point, 17-14 lead at the half. The J C's had a scoring drought in the third period and the wigglers picked up their biggest lead, 24-18. For the first time in league play, K and M's Jack Loomis was not high scorer for the night. Forward Bill Beason canned five out of seven foul shots in the last quarter to take the scoring honors with 12 points. Close behind him was Loomis with 10. Leading the J C's was substitute forward Hubbard with nine.

Lineups:
K and M (32) F (3) J C Sporting Benson (12) F (3) Piper Baughman (7) F (8) Bates Loomis (10) C (7) Mosher Moot (1) F (0) Schindler Thomas (0) G (0) Garey Substitutions: For K and M—Michael (2), Wallace; for J C—Hubbard (9), Ayres, Hull (1), Taylor, Wright.

Who-Won-It Milers To Run At Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA — (AP)—The who-won-it titans of track will renew their famous feuding tonight. Star milers Don Gehrman and Fred Wilt, whose rivalry provoked a great rhubarb last year, head an array of more than 600 athletes who'll compete in the Philadelphia Inquirer indoor meet at Convention Hall.

Washington State to decide whether the game will be played the night of Sept. 28 or the afternoon of Sept. 29.

The fuss began at the Millross games in New York last year. Gehrman was proclaimed winner of the Wanamaker mile race in a hair-breadth finish with Wilt. Later the decision was reversed, then about-faced again. In the end, the AAU in convention last month upheld Gehrman as the winner.
