

Indians Defeat Reedsport, 53-45

Briggs, Olson Pace Locals To Second Win Over Braves; In Wild, See-Saw Affair

By GEORGE CASTILLO

The Indians dumped the Braves, 53-45, last night at the Roseburg high gym to almost duplicate the score of the first game between the two quintets.

The packed-in crowd saw the hottest contested battle of the year on the local court. The score was tied no less than eleven times and the lead changed hands 12 times. Up to the waning minutes of the third quarter, the two teams were never separated by more than three points.

The Indians got off to an early lead. Center Frank Olson dunked his first basket in 20 seconds, but in a twinkling, Reedsport's tall center, Dick Frohman countered with one of his own. A free throw by Roy Van Horn and another jump shot by Olson gave the winners their biggest lead for a long time. The Braves tied it at six-all and again at 8-8 and went ahead to end the initial quarter, 11-8, their longest lead.

In the second quarter, the lead see-sawed back and forth like a teeter-totter. It was tied at 19-19, 21-21 and the first half ended 23-23.

Second Half Battle Tight

The titanic battle started after the intermission. The teams were tied six times. With five and a half minutes gone in that third period, the Indians looked like they were ready to pull the game out of the fire as they garnered the longest lead of the contest, 36-32. They stretched it to 38-33, to let the packed-in crowd hear a sigh.

But it was too early for sighs, because the visitors suddenly took fire and piled on five points to tie the score again 38-38 at the third quarter end.

With just 50 seconds gone in the last canto, cold water was dashed on Reedsport hopes when high scoring Frohman was yanked from the game with five personal fouls.

From that point, Roseburg began to gain the advantage. By the middle of the period, the local quintet was ahead, 45-40 and in the last two minutes had a six point, 49-43 lead which they kept to win the game.

Game Similar To Earlier Tilt
The only difference between last night's game and the earlier, 53-45 win by Roseburg was that neither team was ever far ahead as was Reedsport in the first contest. In both games, Roseburg's money players came through in the last quarter.

As in almost every other game, each Indian has a point of praise. Forward Ken Briggs did an outstanding job in the scoring department with 17 points. Without Olson's fight under the boards in the first half to counter the Brave's superior height, it might have been a different story. Forward Mickey Coen proved to be an ace in the hole at center when he went in to relieve Olson who was sweating out four personal fouls. He was a tiger on the boards and a potent scorer as well. Both guards, Roy Van Horn and Jerry Seese, did a stellar job as did rough Dale Blank.

Leggett, Frohman Star
Reedsport's forward Duane Leggett and center Dick Frohman starred on both offense and defense. Both were good at keeping the backboard cleared and made several tip-ins. Leggett scored 10 points and Frohman led his team with 14.

Jayvees Triumph In Last Quarter

The Roseburg Jayvees, playing a preliminary game at the high school gym last night, staged a last half rally to pull away from a hard pressing Reedsport five and win, 47-33.

The visiting juniors were seldom farther behind than two or three points and until the last quarter it was just toss and go as to who would win. The winners were ahead 11-9, 19-18 and 28-25 at the quarter marks. Then Leroy Elting and Ed Nolte began to catch fire and put the game in the bag.

Elting was high point man with 23 points, followed by Nolte with 21.

WOMAN WINS TRAP SHOOT
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP) — Her husband's gallantry gave Mrs. Ruth Ray of Eugene, Ore., the Great Southern Singles Trapshooting Championship yesterday without a shootout.

She and her husband, Cal, tied at 1953-200 in the regulation event. Then Ray stepped aside and let his wife take the title undisputed. Mrs. Ray holds three world crowns in the scattergun sport.

On tap today are the doubles competition and the introductory handicap.

Out-of-Town Player Sought In Hoop Probe

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Bronx district attorney's office wants to talk with an unnamed out-of-town basketball player about the attempted fix of the Manhattan college-DePaul game.

Assistant District Attorney, Edward F. Breslin, said yesterday the player may be able to name the gambling big-shots behind the cage scandal.

College and university heads in New York City have been asked to get together Monday to try to stamp out gamblers' influence on basketball. The idea was that of Long Island university's president.

Breslin hinted at new arrests when he said "we are in possession of information that others are involved."

Five Men Arrested
Five men have been arrested since Junius Kellogg, lanky Negro star of Manhattan varsity, revealed he had been offered $1,000 to throw last Tuesday's game with DePaul. Manhattan scored an upset by beating DePaul 62-59.

Among those arrested were Henry Poppe and John Byrnes, co-captains and stars of last year's Manhattan squad. They admitted throwing three games last year and Poppe said he propositioned Kellogg to throw the DePaul game.

Arrested with them were Cornelius Kelleher and two brothers, Irving and Benjamin Schwartzberg, who allegedly were behind Poppe in the attempted bribe of Kellogg.

Merely Pawns, D. A. Says
However, Breslin apparently feels that the five men are merely pawns for much bigger underworld figures. He said in a statement:

"I plan to question a certain basketball player outside of New York and from another school in connection with this investigation. It is alleged that this player is known to some gamblers and that he was used as a selling point in trying to induce Kellogg to go along with the plan."

"The investigation is continuing in the hope we can involve higher-ups."
