YONCALLA WOMEN'S STUDY CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Two large bouquets of Heather, daphne and winter chrysanthemums, with tall lavender candles formed a beautiful centerpiece for the luncheon served by Mrs. Irvin Rice and Mrs. Dare Kiggery at the regular meeting of the Yoncalla Women's Study club, held in the Epworth hall of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon. During the meeting, roll call was answered with facts and industries of Oregon. Many interesting industries little thought of as part of the state resources and payroll was brought out. Mrs. Gly Day gave a very fine paper on "Oregon Flood Control," comparing the floods of recent years with those of the 19th century. The worst flood in the history of Oregon took place in 1896, when the Willamette river at Eugene flooded to a width of 29 miles. A lively discussion on Bonneville power followed. The "Gypsy" basket netted the club $1.25. Plans were made to hold the annual Red Letter day silver tea at the church Jan. 27, when an exchange student from Eugene will be the guest speaker. The public is invited.

Those attending were Mrs. Wolfe of Portland, Mrs. Irvin Rice, Mrs. Dare Kiggery, Mrs. Art Rychard, Mrs. Gly Day, Mrs. Cahanes, Mrs. Phil Huntington, Mrs. J. N. Sparks, Mrs. Don Atkinson, Mrs. Hugh Warner, Mrs. John Krose, Mrs. Metz, Mrs. Raphael Wise, Mrs. Harold Turpin, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Phleps and Mrs. George Eides.

After the card play the A-Band entertained with selections. Bill Smith, on behalf of the students, presented Mr. Buehling with a wristwatch and Mrs. Lovine representing the Band Booster club, presented a Parker pen and pencil set to him.
