

Medford Wins Again, 59-55

Blanck, Van Horn Star For Indians As Medford Stops Desperate Rally

A battered underdog Medford quintet did it again last night. The Black Tornado hove into Roseburg and brought a screaming jam-packed house to its feet as it staved off a last quarter drive to edge the locals, 59-55.

Paced by a scrappy little substitute guard named George Singler, the Medford squad became the second five this season to take two games from the Indians.

If time had not run out the clutch playing Roseburg quintet might have pulled the tilt out of the fire. The locals were trailing by ten points with four minutes and 20 seconds to go after Singler had put on a one man scoring show. Forward Dale Blanck started the rally by splitting the hemp from the right corner. By this time the Indians had set up a full floor defense and Blanck began some plain and fancy ball hawking. He caught the ball on a pass and streaked down the floor for an easy lay in. He repeated the performance a second later to bring the crowd up roaring, but the ball rimmed the basket and fell out.

By now the score was 54-50 and Kee Briggs potted another field goal to close the gap to two, but that was as near as the Indians got. Medford forward Ed Bingham and guard Singler combined to pull away again and cinch the game. Missing from the Medford first string were high scoring guard Loren Soderlund, forward Dennis Conner and guard Ed Oldfield. These three were considered the strength of the squad, but the Tornado proved there is also strength in adversity.

Sparked by Singler, the make-shifts overcame a Roseburg bulge early in the third quarter to establish a lead they never relinquished. Singler tied up the game at 35-35 and then did almost a one man job of carrying his team to a 54-44 early fourth quarter lead. He rained in five counters that period and added six more in the final quarter.

Medford Sports Tight Zone
Early in the game, Roseburg guard Roy Van Horn put on a scoring exhibition of his own when the locals were stymied by the tight Medford zone. Depending on a long one-hand pusher from the deep left corner, he rang up four field goals over Medford's tight zone.

Dale Blanck, who led the unsuccessful last quarter Indian drive, shared honors with Medford's Don Denman in the scoring department. Both made 15 tallies. Singler had 13.

The Indians hopes were dealt a rough jolt when center Frank Olson was sent to the showers with five personal fouls.

Wildcats Win As Bradley Downs USF

Kentucky played a basketball game last night but all anyone outside Mississippi know for sure is the score.

The result came from storm-bound Stardville, Miss., via highway patrol radio to New Orleans: Kentucky 60, Mississippi State 60.

Then, because of urgent storm messages, the patrolman had to postpone indefinitely sending details of the game.

Wire communications between Starkville in icy northern Mississippi and the other 47 states have been out several days.

Anyway, until the actual details come in, it's probably safe to assume that Kentucky's seven-foot Bill Bradley hogged the rebounds and dropped in several goals, that Wildcat guard Frank Ramsey led the attack with his lightning floor play, and that newly-eligible Cliff Hagan showed some more of his advertised skill.

This is for sure: it is Kentucky's 17th victory against one loss and makes the Wildcats Southeastern conference record 9-0. Also, Kentucky still is the nation's No. 3 team in this week's Associated Press poll.

The question now is: will Kentucky make it more than 300 miles north to Owensboro, Ky. to play Mississippi tonight? and how? Bradley made it to the west coast — alright — and defeated Santa Clara, Francisco, 72-60. Center Elmer Behnke scored 22 points, a n d grabbed many rebounds to lead the Illinois Braves. Bradley (19-3) takes on Stanford tonight in hopes of bettering its No. 3 national ranking.

Life continues tough for basketball referees. At Fort Collins, Colo., fans threatened and jostled Bill Juengling after Utah squeaked past Colorado A & M, 40-36. Juengling needed an escort to make it off the floor.

In another action last night, Brigham Young (17-4) walloped Utah State, 63-57, to extend its Skyline conference lead; Southern California (14-2) defeated Santa Clara, 53-43; Idaho knocked Oregon (12-8) out of a tie for the lead in the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast conference, 66-63; Arizona (16-3) drubbed Texas, 74-48; Iowa (9-5) downed Missouri, 63-43, and St. John's (15-2) came from behind to defeat St. Francis, a Brooklyn rival, 44-38.

Medford Amateur Places In Third Round Of Tourney

TUCSON, Ariz. — (AP) — Three links veterans and a couple of newcomers are bunched within a stroke of each other starting today's third round of the $10,000 Tucson Open Golf tourney.

Jim Turnesa, Biarritz, N. Y., shares the lead with Johnny Bulla, Verona, Pa., and Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., who has never won a meet since joining the big time.

The three men are eight under par with 36 hole totals of 132 for the par 70. El Rio golf and country club course.

Breathing hot down their necks are Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, who has apparently fully recovered from a back injury and Max Evans, Detroit, Mich., who has never crashed the winner's circle since joining the pro circuit. —A grappling show Matchmaker Elton Owen describes as "the most tremendous 'Battle Royal' in local mat history."

Lined up for the six-man free-for-all are the following mat stars: Andy Tremaine, El Paso, Tex., world's light-heavy champ; Rufus Jones, Detroit-Boston, who beat Leo Wallick here last week.

Soldat Gorky, Canadian-born Russian and considered the scourge of the mat sport, Jack Kiser, Portland, former coast light-heavy titleholder.

Dale Kiser, Portland promising young wrestling star, Eric Pedersen, Duluth, Minn., muscular blond and former "Mr. America."

Largest purse in "Royal" history in Oregon, $300, goes to the winner, along with a match against Frankie Stojack, coast junior heavy champ.

First two and third and fourth men eliminated will vie in consolation matches — one fall, 20 minutes. The finalists will vie in a three-fall, 30-minute bout. Starting time will be 8:30 p.m., with Owen as referee.

Donkey Basketball Coming Sunday
Donkeys may be stubborn, but they will be balking for a good cause Sunday night at the Roseburg high school gym when they display their talents on the basketball court.

All the receipts over the cost of advertising will go to the grade school athletic fund, according to sponsor H. G. Jeffries.

But the spectators won't be losing any money on the show. It promises to offer more than its share of laughs. In case you've never attended a donkey ball game, here's how it goes.

The Game Has Rules. According to the rules, all passing must be done from the animal's back. To say the least, it's no easy job to jockey a donkey under the basket. In case the ball falls loose, the player may dismount to retrieve the oval as long as he has a firm grip on the reins.

The Roseburg Elks and J. C. Sporting goods quintets will get a chance to test their fast breaks and donkey to donkey defenses in the Sunday tilt starting at 7:30 p.m.

This is not a league game. BASEBALL BILL MAY PASS OLYMPIA — (AP) — The House passed the so-called Baseball bill to third and final reading yesterday after batting down several attempts to amend the measure.

As the measure now stands it forbids major league scouts to negotiate with high school athletes unless they first obtain permission of the prosecuting attorney of the county.

Pirates Post Easy South B Loop Win From Days Creek

Glendale's mathematical championship chance in the south half "B" league competition appeared brighter last night. The second place five thumped visiting Days Creek, 53-30 while Canyonville was being edged out by Riddle.

The winners had no trouble at all with the Days Creek zone. The fast breaking Pirate five stormed around and through it with equal facility. The score was tight at the first quarter mark, 9-6 in favor of Glendale. The Pirates were still far from running away as the halftime whistle blew and they were leading, 20-15. But they poured on the coal in the third canto to run up a 33-15 tally.

High point man was forward Bill Chandler with 15 counters followed by center Glen Austin with 11.

Mann Pots Charity Shot As Irish Down Tigers, 42-41

Riddle's Irish pulled the upset of the season in the last three seconds of a south half "B" league game by edging Canyonville, 42-41. Forward Dick Mann thrilled the hometowners by coolly potting a free throw just before the gun went off to hand his visitors their first league loss in six starts.

Riddle held slight leads at the quarters of 13-9, 18-15 and 30-27, but the last canto was the toughest one. The visiting Tigers closed up the gap in jig time and the lead swayed back and forth until Mann came up to the gift line with the score tied at 41-41.

Championship Still Possible
This loss didn't threaten the chances too much, however. The Canyonville squad is still one full game ahead of Glendale and only has Days Creek and Camas Valley yet to play.

Mann was also high point scorer for the evening with 13 counters. Riddle led with 12. Canyonville Mann (15) F (13) Shippen Lilly (13) F (8) Hoffe Carrell (4) C (13) Hayter Adsit (2) G (5) Burwell Bigsby (8) G (0) Cloud

Vandals Rally Defeats Ducks, 66-63; Beavers Fold Under Husky Attack

By The Associated Press

The underdog Idaho Vandals put on the pressure in the final 10 minutes to upset the Oregon Ducks 66-63 last night and to permit idle Washington State to take first place in the Northern Division Pacific Coast conference basketball scramble.

Washington's Huskies kept their championship hopes alive by trouncing Oregon State 74 to 35. The Idaho victory lifted the Vandals out of the cellar in circuit standings, ahead of Oregon State.

Oregon suffered a serious defensive lapse at least three times and never recovered from the last one as Idaho went into a stall to protect a six-point lead.

The Ducks let down when they were out in front 52-49. Herb Mildard and Bob Wheeler then flipped in two field goals and Sam Jenkins added a pair of free throws for Idaho to give the Vandals a 58-52 lead.

Oregon led at halftime, 34-31. Washington's Bobby Houbregs netted seven field goals and a free throw in the first half to help the Huskies register the heaviest trouncing they have ever handed the Beavers.

The worst defeat an OSC team had ever taken from Washington was 60-47, and the Huskies' previous high was 63 in losing an 84-63 decision to the Beavers.

Washington took command at the outset, crowding eight points before Bob Payne picked up a free throw for Oregon State. The Beavers

Southern Oregon Wins Far West Loop Tilt
ASHLAND — (AP) — Southern Oregon College will seek its second straight basketball victory tonight over the California Aggies, defeated 72-60 in a Far Western conference game here last night.

Southern Oregon's superior manpower was the telling factor in last night's game. The Aggies, whose squad has been cut to six men by the draft and military enlistments, tired in the second half, permitting Southern Oregon to pull away to victory.

The half time score was Southern Oregon 38 and California Aggies 31.

Keith Wade, high-scoring Southern Oregon center, and Ernest Wetmore, Aggie forward, tied for high point honors with 21 each.

Sargent Paces Lumber Team To League Tie
Roseburg Lumber moved back into a first place Classic Bowling league tie with the Bonedancers last night at the bowling alley. The Lumber keglers swept four points from the Bonedancers while the Bonedancers were only able to take three from Wiley's Realtors.

Earl Sargent, a perennial repeater in the individual high scoring ranks, paced the Roseburg Lumber team with a 243 game and a whopping 637 series.
