

Wildcat Strike Spreads Rapidly

LONDON — (AP) — A wildcat strike, condemned by union leaders as Communist-inspired, spread still further today.

After counting heads this morning, the National Dock Labor board reported 19,600 dockers on strike, about 1,800 more than yesterday.

Biggest increase was in London, where 8,460 of the port's 25,000 dockers were out and strike leaders were inciting more to quit.

There were signs of a break in the strike here, however. At one strikers meeting, about 1,000 London dockers voted to go back to work Monday.

The London strikers committee met in a pub today to talk over further action and decided to call a mass meeting of strikers Monday morning. Strong sentiment for a return to work was reported.

Aside from London, Liverpool and Manchester were hard hit by the strike.

The capital of Bolivia is La Paz.

MDL's pattern-setting audience participation show, "Queen for a Day" is keying its broadcasts to the time and the national emergency. Starting Feb. 19, "Queen" will feature a "Career Woman Queen" award with a special scholarship for on-the-job training or schooling. Only aspiring career women are eligible for participation and possible coronation as "Queen for a Day." Among the openings available are a job in defense as an apprentice plastics fabricator at Lockheed Aircraft Corp.; schooling in electronics at the Lee de Forest Institute in Chicago; a business administration course from a recognized school, plus speed-typewriting, language and other training courses a and jobs.

ESTHER GEDDES' current activities in Salem have not interfered with her "Magic Garden" broadcasts, as assumed by the program's regular listeners. Frequent Roseburg visits allow Mrs. Geddes to tape-record a series of

Ketell Plans To Double Housing At Pendleton

PENDLETON — (AP) — Building permits for 50 houses have been filed here by Herbert R. Ketell, Portland contractor. Valuation was $289,860.

The 50 will be added to a housing project in which Ketell has already built 100 houses.

Owners cannot move into the 100 houses until the sewer line is approved by the state health authority. Occupancy was scheduled early this winter.

"a Company's legs, like a man's... should be long enough to reach the ground"

29 is an interesting number. It happens to be the business age of Associated Plywood Mills, Inc.

That is a long time in the relatively young plywood industry. It is also a sufficiently long time to realize that a company is judged by

- quality of manufacture
- integrity of management
- honest dealings with buyers
- sincere and friendly interest in the welfare and advancement of employees
- a feeling of community responsibility

Our legs, we hope, are long enough to reach the ground of all of these important things that give a company stability, character, strength, and the respect and friendship of the communities with which we are so closely identified.

Home On Curve Target For Rampaging Vehicles

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — First it was potatoes, scattered over the lawn when a truck overturned.

Then it was hay, in a similar accident. Twice cars overturned and burned in front of the house.

A careening car struck the front porch, and hardly had repairs been made when another automobile sheared the same porch off completely.

Then destruction invaded the house itself. An automobile crashed through the wall of Mrs. Cipriano Contreras' bedroom early Monday wrecking the bed on which she slept.

Mrs. Contreras went to the hospital with multiple injuries of the back and ribs.

Her home lies just beyond the curve on a speedway.
