Winston

By MRS. GEORGE BACHER

At the invitation of the Lookingglass school board, a sizable delegation from district 116 attended the meeting relative to the proposed consolidation held at the Lookingglass school Friday evening. A similar discussion was held at the Dillard school Thursday evening. It was elected by a two-thirds majority that the southern districts consolidate within themselves in preference to forming a union with district 4. Feb. 15 has been named as the closing date for filing petition for a consolidation election.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. returned to their homes in Winston Sunday, following a visit in Portland where they attended the bowling convention.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bacher visited with the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Essister of Roseburg, on Saturday. The latter couple left for Portland Sunday where they will remain for a week attending to business matters. Lassiter is owner of the Roseburg Paving Co.

Members of the Winston-Dillard Home Extension unit as a group, as well as residents at large of the community, have been invited to attend the silver tea to be held at the Dillard church Feb. 15 under the auspices of the WSCS.

In spite of inclement weather conditions, a large crowd from this community attended the dedication services at the new Community hospital Sunday afternoon in Roseburg. Winston was applauded for its donations.

Construction of private stables is underway on the Hubert Alford property in Winston. Mr. and Mrs. Alford recently completed a new home.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Geoer Bacher were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Loghry and family of Riddle. The Loghrys plan to leave Friday for Crescent City, Calif., where he will assume duties as officer manager in a large lumber mill. He has been employed in a similar capacity in Myrtle Creek and Riddle for the past five years.
