

GETTING THEIR HEADS TOGETHER—These four-week-old puppies out of a litter of ten born to Tuffy, a cocker spaniel, put on a special pose for photographer in Chicago.

Lecture Contest Slated Between County Granges

A lecture contest between Douglas county Grange lecturers was planned at a meeting of that group Feb. 18 in the home of Ollie Krueger. Any lecturer desiring information on the contest should contact Pomona Lecturer Mrs. Ruby Moore, who called the meeting.

Discussion was conducted on the lecturer's school held recently at Corvallis and ideas were exchanged among the lecturers.

Grange representatives attending were: Ollie Krueger, Melrose; Cora Collison, South Deer Creek; Gertrude Ballau, Glide; Margaret Crouch, Camas Valley; Katherine Simmons, Riversdale; Mina Johnson, Azalea; Marian Fisher, Kellogg; Nora McArthur, Sunnydale; Gladys Jazek, Elkhead; and Ruby Moore.

Mrs. Krueger served refreshments.

Co-Ed Dies As Students Pray For Her Recovery

NAPERVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A chain of prayer by students ended here with the death of an attractive co-ed, an outstanding student at North Central college.

Phyllis Ebinzer, this year's homecoming queen at the college, died of acute leukemia, a cancerous disease of the blood, eight days after she was stricken.

Students had conducted the chain of prayer for recovery of the 21-year-old senior. Physicians, however, had held no hope for her recovery.
