tenant farmers for the lactuage of farms.

This aid has been extended to farmers who can not get credit from banks, private individuals or other lending agencies because they are considered poor credit

In 15 years the Agriculture de-partment has loaned nearly $460, 600,000 to 66,073 farm buyers. In most cases the government put down the full cost of the farm. Few commercial cone as would lead more than 75 percent of the

Sex Murderer Sought With Reward Of $1,000

PRINCETON, B. C. — (CP) —A $1,000 reward has been posted for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Mrs. George Mathewson, shot, stabbed and raped Oct. 23, 1949. The reward was posted by Mr and Mrs. E. Ganderton of Waiwright, Alta., parents of the pretty 24-year-old nurse, a bride of four months, She was their only daughter.

George Mathewson, taxi-driver in this mining town 183 miles east of Vancouver, found the nude, rav-aged body of his wife sprawled across their bed when he returned home from a trip to Copper mountain, 10 miles away.

Police investigation at the time covered the entire district, including a ballistics check of all available rifles. It lasted for months without any clue being turned up.

Neither the gun nor weapon used in the stabbing was ever found.
