Committee Approves 181/2 Draft, 26-Month Service

No Objection Raised To Bill, Vinson Says

WASHINGTON - (AP) house armed services committee today approved lowering the draft age to 18 years and six months, and lengthening of the service term and lengthening of the service term to 26 months.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) said the action was final and was taken "without objection."

The committee in closed session is considering section by section a revised version of the bill introduced by Vinson for cutting the draft age below the present 19-year limit, extending the period of service, and setting up a universal military training program for the future.

The house bill differs in several respects from the one which the Senate passed Friday. Senate passed Friday.

tie on an amendment requiring congressional approval for assigning U. S. divisions to the North Atlantic pact army. This proposal, by Rep. Arends (R-III) had the backing of the house Republican policy committee.

As it stands, the house bill provides for drafting youths at 18½ years, extending military service from the present 21 months to 26, and placing universal military training under supervision of a five-civilian commission.

civilian commission.

Agree On Ceiling

The bill passed by the Senate sets the draft age at 18, extends military service to 24 months, and calls for three civilians and two military members to guide the training program.

Both measures call for a 4,000,000-man ceiling on the armed forces. The senate bill provided no termination date for the program. Vinsen proposes an end to the draft provisions, July 1, 1954 unless extended by new legislation.

Passage of the house bill would call for a conference between committees from the two chambers to iron out the differences in the two measures.

The action was urged a week ago by a senate armed services sub-committee, which concluded that competition between the government and private buyers had helped push up the price by 150 percent since the Korean invasion.

The government last week temporarily halted its stockpile buying, also in hope of driving down the prices charged by British, Dutch, Bolivian and other sellers.

HONOLULU — (P) — Thirty-eight passengers, including one baby, were taken off the stricken American freighter Andrea F. Luckenbach early today.

The 8,000 ton ship ran aground three miles off the Hawaiian island of Kauai last night. It was reported in a sinking condition.

Names of the passengers were not announced.

Still aboard were 35 to 40 crew members.

Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State, noted published criticism of the figures and called for the investigation.

The published criticism said the public had lost confidence in the figures.

Strand commented that if the figures no longer are valid, "the State Board of Higher Education should immediately remove the administrative officers of the college from their present positions and also all other members of the staff who had anything to do with the milk cost studies."

The milk cost figures are compiled by the college's dairy department. They are gathered from individual milk producers, put through a complicated processing, then given to the state milk marketing administrator as the cost of producing milk. These figures are used by the milk administrator in setting minimum retail prices.
