Robert A. Jones Heads Chamber

Robert A. Jones of the Jones Insurance Agency is the new president of the Myrtle Creek chamber of commerce, the Myrtle Creek Mail reports.

Jones was elected to the office at the chamber's annual banquet March 2 at the Odd Fellows hall.

Other officers of the organization elected at the meeting were: Kenneth Winston, secretary; E. M. Briner, vice-president; Paul W. Frentress, treasurer; Roland Lent and John Eckwall, directors for three-year terms; Robert Kelly and Cal A. Palo, directors for two-year terms, and Marion Kusler, director for one year term.

Guest speakers at the annual dinner were Myrtle Creek School Superintendent M. C. Deller and Roseburg chamber of commerce President George Luoma.

70-Year-Old Won't Appeal Draft Notice

DICKINSON, N. D. — (AP) — Mike J. Frank of Belfield who will be 70 in May of this year, has received notice from the Stark county draft board that he is in class 1-A in the draft.

He does not plan to appeal the classification. He just hopes he is drafted before spring farm work starts.

Grand Jury To Review RFC Influence Inquiry

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Some developments in the sensational Reconstruction Finance corporation influence inquiry are booked for review before a federal grand jury.

Object: to seek out possible law violations.

The Justice department announced last night that the grand jury will begin its work here Monday. The announcement came just one day after the investigating senate banking subcommittee requested such action.

Grange Confers Degrees On Two

Third and fourth degree obligations were conferred upon Dee and Juanita Atterbury by Fred Brauning at the Fair Oaks Grange meeting Tuesday at the Grange hall. Master Orville Smith presided.

Mrs. Jean Smith, home economics chairman announced the next H. E. club meeting will be March 16, with Mrs. Evelyn Frotcher and Mrs. Mabel Crouse as hostesses. Mrs. Maggie Francis reported the chicken dinner given by the Grange members at "Dinah's Shack" Feb. 24 was very successful.

Lecturer Mrs. Herbert Hibbard presented a program on taxes. A skit on making out income tax reports was given by Dee Atterbury and Ardell Loeris and one on "Superiority" by Evelyn and Henry Frotcher. Readings included "Taxes" by Fred Brauning and "These Cannot Be Taxed" by Lester Harrison. Mrs. Hibbard explained a few objectives of the Grange youth program. Miss Lu-

KDND DIAL-LOG

Carl's Coffee Club Capers (6-6:30 a.m.) gives early morning listeners wake-up music, time signals, a roundup of overnight news and farm fare each Monday thru Saturday. Carl Arndt handles pots and pans and gives out down chatter. Good listening while that first cup of coffee is brewing. Second cup to be sipped comes at 9 in the morning when Faith DeBernardi and Lyle Fenner talk over household hints, shopping guides and upcoming trends of sorts that affect housewives.

Christine Harding scatter pins causing mild flurry around the county. In just three days time some 90 letters arrived at station calling for the pins. Exciting chapters of Second Spring heard each morning Monday thru Friday at 10:30 a.m. Wonder if that major problem posed by plot can ever be solved! Most work around a radio seems to stop when Second Spring hits the airway. By the way, recent survey shows that majority of women find some solution to their own problems by listening to the serials—men too, apparently—station still besieged by calls from the over-anxious who want to hear sneak previews of things to come the following day.

One of best ways to relax during evening hours is to tune on a good Mutual mystery. Cisco Kid tonight at 7:30 finds the modern counterparts of Don Quixote and Sancho riding into Chicken Creek to battle a couple of scoundrels trying to do in a rich man. At 8 tonight George Valentine goes after a crazed killer who leaves too many clues on "Let George Do It." It's often been said that there's no such thing as a good sustaining program but Mutual's "I Love A Mystery," written by Carleton E. Morse keeps the 10 p.m. audience gripping their antennas.

Dillard

By ROSA HEINBACH

The Dillard school faculty and students have reached a record in the flu epidemic that seems to be sweeping the country. One hundred and thirty children were absent on one particular day with four teachers on the sick list. Mrs. Ethel Chase, first grade teacher, was taken to the hospital Saturday. Mrs. Margaret Bodenmer, Marvin Covey and Mrs. Chrystal Pompa will son were numbered among the sick. Mrs. Frank Drew, who has been substituting, was also on the sick list.

Members of the Dillard Women's society are requested to come to the next regular meeting March 15, equipped with cleaning equipment for a "clean up" day at the church. Men are invited to come and help the cause along.

Mrs. Alton Rice of Willis Creek, accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hughes of Green to Ashland, where Mrs. Hughes is receiving medical treatments. They plan to remain in Ashland indefinitely.

Mrs. Sadie Sheridan, who has been recuperating from a lingering illness at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Rice is now located at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Rice Sr.

The sheep raisers in the Dillard community are disturbed over the extensive killing of the young sheep by stray dogs this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Laurance and son, Nickie, left early Wednesday for Portland where the former is receiving medical treatments.

A new 30-40 foot burner has been installed this week at the Andrus, Buell and Manske sawmill in Dillard.

Melvin Brittain has been confined to his home the past week with a severe cold. He is recuperating satisfactorily.
