

Dayton, Seton Hall Score Upsets In NIT Encounters

Unseeded Teams Trim Arizona And N.C. State

NEW YORK — (AP) — Two unseeded but undaunted dark horses — Dayton and Seton Hall — ranked today as definite threats to gallop into the final round of the National Invitation Basketball tournament.

In a pair of smashing quarterfinal upsets, Dayton trimmed fourth-seeded Arizona, 74-68, last night and Seton Hall blasted second-seeded North Carolina State, 71-59, before 9,530 surprised fans at Madison Square Garden.

Tomorrow night Dayton and Seton Hall will go against the other seeded teams — St. John's, No. 1, and Brigham Young, No. 3. Dayton plays St. John's and Seton Hall meets Brigham Young.

Meineke Makes Difference

A six-foot-seven bundle of scoring and rebounding dynamite — Don Meineke — was the big difference for the Dayton Flyers.

Meineke was a near-perfect player last night. He poured in 37 points and had magnetic hands under both backboards. The wiry junior flipped in 11 field goals and 15 fouls, the latter an NIT record.

Dayton sped to a 29-39 halftime lead even though Meineke went 7½ minutes before connecting with a field goal. Twice during the second half Arizona cut the margin to five points, but Dayton refused to crack.

Roger Johnson with 19 points sparked Arizona's attack. But he, Jerry Dillon and Leo Johnson fouled out, crushing any hopes Arizona had of coming back.

N.C. State Smothered

In the second game, Seton Hall completely smothered the nation's major top-scoring team.

After a slow start, Seton Hall came on like a spreading brush fire. Walt Dukes, a six-foot-ten speedster was the big gun behind Seton Hall's attack.

The lanky Negro star, checked with one field goal in the first half, got hot in the second half and wound up with 19 points.

Roy Belliveau, a sub, helped Dukes off the backboard besides handling the playmaking chores. He got 11 points.

N. C. State's Sam Ranzino had a tough night although at times he flashed the brilliance that made him an All-America this year.

The Gary, Ind., expert scored 11 points in the first half but trailed off to five in the second half.

Tag-Team Wrestling Match Booked At Armory Arena

The first Australian tag-team wrestling match in Douglas county for several months will be featured at the Roseburg armory arena Saturday night. Matchmaker Elton Owen, after the Soldat Gorky-Iufus Jones match had attracted the largest crowd in local history last week, doesn't want the armory mat to cool off and for that reason has booked the meanie vs. cleanie four-man free-for-all.

Bulldog Clements, remembered for his blistering brawl against Herb Parks here a year ago, is rougher and tougher than ever and the Alaskan Indian will team with Alex Kasaboski, the Hungarian who lost to Arne Skaaland here last week.

Skaaland, Williams Team

Skaaland, the talented Scandinavian, will team with Eddie Williams against the two villains. It will be Williams' first appearance here since losing his Pacific coast light-heavyweight championship to Gentleman Dale Haddock in Boise, Ida., recently. But the little Scotsman from Springfield, Mo., is still a formidable man and his speed and agility will aid the hard-battling Skaaland in their battle against Clements and Kasaboski.

Instead of the customary preliminary tilts between the same tag-team foes, Owen has booked a one-hour, three-fall opener between the "Yellow Mask," formerly known as the "Gray Mask," and Danno MacDonald, the popular young Scotsman from Canada.

Because the four tag-team principals will not be required to vie in preliminary tilts, the team tilt

Indictment Made On Fix Charges

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Albert R. Scroggins, 31, has been indicted by the county grand jury on charges that he attempted to fix a University of Southern California basketball game.

He is charged specifically with attempting to bribe Ken Flower, USC sophomore forward, with an offer of $1,500 to throw a game with UCLA last March 3. Flower recalled the matter to police and then his team defeated the UCLA Bruins 43 to 41.

Ten witnesses were called by the grand jury before the indictment was returned yesterday. Among the witnesses were Scroggins, Flower, Trojan Coach Forrest T. Wood, assistant Coach A. J. Conti and Byron Van Alstyne, a member of the Trojan team.

4 Teams Gain Tournney Spots

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Writer

Central Catholic of Portland, Eugene, Newberg and Scappoose nabbed state tournament berths last night, and that left only two more open for the class A high school tourney opening at Eugene next Tuesday.

At least one of those, and maybe both, will be decided tomorrow night when Beaverton meets Hillsboro in the district 9-A tournament and Salem plays the winner of a Silverton-Stayton game in district 11-A.

The 9-A race definitely will end then. Beaverton set the stage for the pay-off game by upsetting Hillsboro last night, 41-37. That drew the two teams into a district tie and made the Thursday game necessary.

11-A Undetermined

In 11-A Silverton and Stayton will clash tonight for the right to go against Salem, the state's No. 2 team in the latest Associated Press poll. A Salem win will end the playoff.

Central Catholic, the state's No. 1 team, led the district winners last night, crushing Gresham, 63-38, although two of Central's best performers, center Bob Altenhofen and forward Ron Marshall spent much of the game on the bench because of fouls.

Eugene, the No. 8 team in the latest poll, gained the 8-A crown by trimming Oakridge, 66-47.

Newberg raked to the 8-A title with a 54-44 victory over McMinnville.

Scappoose earned the right to represent 14-A at the tourney by downing Rainier, 52-46.

That virtually completed pairings for the tourney, guaranteeing that eight of the state's top ten teams would be in the 16-team playoff at Eugene. Salem would be the ninth high-ranking team, if Salem wins in 11-A.

Tourney Pairings Listed

Both Salem and Central Catholic will be in the same bracket at the tournament, along with Eugene, the state's No. 8 team, and Astoria, No. 10.

There will be five of the top ten teams in the other bracket — Lincoln of Portland, No. 3; Klamath Falls, No. 4; Marshfield, No. 5; La Grande, No. 6; and Lebanon, No. 7.

The pairings:

Upper bracket — Newberg (8-A) vs. Salem (6-A); Astoria (10-A) vs. Salem, Stayton or Silverton (11-A); Scappoose (14-A) vs. Bend (3-A); Central Catholic (12-A) vs. Jefferson of Portland (16-A).

Lower bracket — Klamath Falls (4-A) vs. West Linn (12-A); Beaverton or Hillsboro (9-A) vs. La Grande (1-A); Milton-Freewater (2-A) vs. Lincoln of Portland (15-A); Lebanon (7-A) vs. Marshfield (5-A).

Big Seven, Ten Titlists To Meet

MANHATTAN, Kas. — (AP) — Illinois and Kansas State meet tonight in a basketball game intended as a tuneup for the NCAA playoffs, but it could well be billed as a match for the midwestern championship.

The unprecedented meeting of Illinois, champion of the Big Ten and Kansas State, Big Seven titlist, is being played to keep them in trim for next week's NCAA playoffs.

Special permission was granted by the two conferences for the first post season meeting between its champions. Illinois has a 19-3 record and K-State holds a 21-3 season mark.

Illinois' first round opponent in the eastern NCAA playoff at New York city March 20 will be Columbia. Kansas State opens its western at Kansas City March 21 with Arizona.

Vikings Press Rams In Poll

Roseburg Rating Falls To Sixteenth In State

By The Associated Press

Central Catholic of Portland understood a challenge from Salem, again emerging in the weekly Associated Press poll as the state's No. 1 high school basketball team today.

It was close, just like last week when Salem first made a serious challenge of Central's No. 1 position. Central gained 198 points in the voting this week, Salem 192.

Only one more poll remains now before the teams go into the annual state tournament at Eugene next week.

Central Catholic picked up first-place support in this week's balloting by 21 sports writers and sportscasters. Central got 13 votes for first place, Salem 7. Last week the Central margin was 19-8.

Both teams are favored to win district tournaments, and so qualify for the state tourney.

Astoria Climbs Back

Astoria, after winning a district tournament last weekend, climbed back into the top ten teams, displacing North Bend as No. 10. That left Grants Pass as the only high-ranking team not in the running for the state tourney.

Grants Pass, eliminated in Southern Oregon play, was voted the No. 7 position.

Besides Central Catholic and Salem, only one team gained a first-place vote. That was Klamath Falls, a team that retained its No. 4 position this week, again trailing Lincoln of Portland, Lincoln won the No. 3 spot with 155 points. Klamath Falls had 146 points.

Marshfield moved up a notch to No. 5 this week, showing La Grande down to No. 6. Each won state tournament berths last weekend.

Eugene District Favorite

Grants Pass was No. 7, followed by Eugene, Lebanon and Astoria. Eugene is favored to win a tournament berth as the district 6-A representative. Lebanon and Astoria already have won berths.

The ballot results (with the number of first-place votes, then the team's season record listed in parentheses):

Building Supply Keglers Win Title

Myrtle Creek Building Supply outbowed the Shalimar Room by five pins Monday night at the Roseburg alley to win the annual women's city association team championship. The Myrtle Creek team emerged with an aggregate score of 2,570 pins. The Shalimar was close behind with 2,565.

Other teams posted the following scores: Umpqua Cleaners, 2,555; Medical Arts, 2,409; K and J Lunch 2,394 and Roy O. Young's, 2,341.

Francis Bistak took single game honors with a 187 and the series high count with 535.

The women will determine the best single and doubles teams this Sunday.

Helser, Durham Speak At High School Banquet

Football and basketball lettermen of Myrtle Creek high school were honored at a banquet at the high school recently.

Roy Helser and Paul Durham, co-coaches at Linfield college, were banquet guest speakers.

In his talk, Helser told the 125 banquet customers amusing stories about his baseball experiences with the Portland Beavers. Durham, speaking in a more serious vein, described what it takes for schools to have successful athletic programs. He said a traditional spirit, the will to win, leadership, material, and finally coaching were necessary to produce winning teams.

Scarborough Honored

Gordon Scarborough, senior gridman, was named to receive the most inspirational player award for football team members. Dick Komp and Neil Tester tied in voting for the most inspirational basketball player. The voting was conducted by players, faculty members and fans.

Bradley, Beavers Win Hawaii Tilts

HONOLULU — (AP) — Bradley and Oregon State won their opening round games in the Hawaii Invitational Basketball tourney last night.

Bradley defeated Universal Motors, Honolulu, 88-67.

Oregon State defeated the University of Hawaii 55 to 43 in the second game before 3,500 fans.

Bob Payne, 6-foot-3 forward, led the victors with 16 points.

The game was close until the final four minutes, when Oregon State pulled away in a fast break.

Bradley led 41-35 at the half and it was close until the final 10 minutes. The Peoria, Ill., team plays University of Hawaii tonight.
