DONNA BOWMAN BECOMES BRIDE OF RICHARD POE AT IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Miss Donna Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman of Elton and Robert Richard Poe, son of Mrs. Jean Anderson of Portland were united in marriage by the Rev. Gilbert H. Newland, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Methodist church. The double ring ceremony was performed.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was white nylon or tulle with a train and three quarter-length veil with orange blossom hair. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and ribbon rosebud streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Roderick (Lois) Bowman in yellow tulle. The bridesmaids were Miss Iva Hedges of Portland, sister of the bridegroom, who wore blue net over tulle and Miss Doris Smith of Elton, who wore yellow tulle. Junior bridesmaid was Diane Haines in yellow dotted swiss and flower girl was Gloria Haines, also in yellow dotted swiss. They are both cousins of the bride.

Best man was Pvt. Roderick Bowman, brother of the bride.

Ardena Hague, a cousin of the bride, and Diane Haines lit the candles.

Ushers were: Joe Pedro and Carlton Smith, both of Reedsport and Rodney Hague of Sutherlin, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Elton Benedict played the wedding march and Mr. Benedict sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Mrs. Bertie Lewis of Reedsport served the cake and Mrs. Gladys Stewart poured. Mrs. Lawrence Smith assisted in the reception room. Joanne Smith of Reedsport had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Helen Dickerson and Mrs. Carlton Smith of Reedsport were in charge of the gifts.

For going away the bride wore an aqua suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. After a short honeymoon the couple is at home in Reedsport where the bridegroom is employed.

This is the third generation to be married in the Elton Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sawyers, the bride's grandparents in 1907 and Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman, her parents were married there in 1927.

Worthy Grand Matron Pays Official Visit at Meeting

Roseburg chapter, No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star, and Oakland chapter No. 91, held their annual district meeting March 17 at the Masonic hall in Roseburg. The occasion was the visit of Pearl Maclay, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon. Mrs. Maclay is from LaGrande.

The meeting was presided by a dinner for officers and members. The Easter motif was cleverly carried out in the table decorations with rabbits and baskets of colored eggs. Earl Wiley, V. J. Mirelli, Ralph Cooper, Frank Brown and W. G. Clarenbach assisted in the serving.

In the chapter room, a beautiful, luminous Easter cross, enveloped in a blue cloud with white dogwood blossoms climbing upward, was the single dominating point of interest. This beautiful arrangement was made by Betty Smith. The worthy matron, Mrs. Earl Wiley, told the impressive story of the part played by the dogwood tree in the crucifixion of Christ.

Honored guests present besides the worthy grand matron, Pearl Maclay, were Irma Thum, past grand matron from Cottage Grove and Leila Wimberly, grand conductress, Roseburg. They were presented and escorted to the East. Ada Brown, worthy matron from Oregon chapter No. 57 and Mary La Prath, from Glendale, were also present and escorted.
